Linda Whitehouse, of Hednesford Traders, celebrates the Royal Wedding with Welephant and Cannock Blue Watch firefighters Graham Degg, John Lawrie and Daz Golder

Knees-up as William and Kate tie knot

AS Prince William and Kate Middleton tied the knot at Westminster Abbey last Friday (April 29), scores of schools, residents and pubs celebrated the big day by staging their own parties or mock ceremonies.

Revellers in Hednesford, however, were left disappointed when a big screen on which the Royal Wedding was due to be broadcast failed to arrive.

The rental company told street party organiser Linda Whitehouse that the screen had been accidentally double-booked.

Revellers who had gathered in Market Street instead crammed into the Lightworks shopping mall to watch the special event, and despite the setback, Mrs Whitehouse said it was great to see the community pull together.

PITMEN MISS OUT ON PROMOTION

Ecstasy after Danny Quinn's goal had made it 2-1 in extra-time to the Pitmen

HEDNESFORD TOWN players, staff and supporters are stewing over another agonising play-off defeat after Salisbury City won a dramatic contest on penalty kicks.

The Pitmen, who last year lost a play-off semi-final to Chippenham, are now consigned to another year in the Zamaretto League Premier Division – football's seventh tier in the league pyramid.

Fans said they were gutted by the heartbreaking loss, which came in front of nearly 2,000 spectators at Keys Park.

Manager Rob Smith pledged

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

his team would regroup, but also admitted that many players may now leave to play at a higher level.

"It's a cruel game," Smith said. "We don't want to feel too sorry for ourselves but it's very hard at the moment because it's an experience you never want."

"It's hard but we've got to try to regroup and have a bash at it next season."

Hednesford had led 2-1 in extra time after the teams were tied at 1-1 on 90 minutes, but Ben Adlesbury's screamer two minutes from full time forced penalties, which Salisbury edged 3-2.

Hednesford fan Lee Murdoch, aged 27 and from Norton Canes, summed up the mood after the game.

"There are 30 or 40 of us who travel every week and when you get to know the players like that, you feel as bad as they must be feeling," he said.

Michael O'Malley, aged 16, from Hednesford, added: "We deserved to win after upping out game in the second half."

"But they scored a good second goal very late in extra time which demoralised our players."

"Our fans were great throughout the game."

Railway trackman Peter Davies-Findell, aged 27, of Heath Gap Road, Cannock, said: "They've overachieved this season, winning 18 games out of 20, and they've also won the Cup."

The cup in question was the Red Insure Cup and Hednesford's late league run pushed them to second place, four points behind champions Truro City.

WELL-WISHERS got into the party spirit to celebrate the wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton.

The party started early across the Chase and Lichfield with thousands of people getting into the mood in the run-up to the big day.

Schools were particularly busy, with pupils from Cheslyn Hay Primary taking over a Great Wyrley church to stage their own version of the Royal Wedding.

The 70 early years foundation stage pupils visited St Mark's Church for the ceremony with Luke Bayley and Neve Osborne, both aged five, playing the roles of bride and groom. Their classmates played bridesmaids, best man and parents.

Foundation stage teacher Claire Newens said a local business loaned a limousine to transport the bridal party to the church, while others supplied flowers and food for the reception which was held in the nearby village hall.

As well as being a celebration of the Royal Wedding the event was also organised to teach the children about marriage.

Elsewhere, pupils at Norton Canes Primary in School Road, while playground parties were held at schools including Springhill Primary in Mossbank Avenue, Burntwood and Moat Hall Primary in John's Lane, Great Wyrley. Youngsters also celebrated at Horn End Nursery in Wharf Road, Rugeley.

Dresses

A Stafford-based charity saw an increase in demand for wedding-related items at its shops because of the Royal Wedding. Katharine House Hospice retail manager Libby Dale said its 14 shops had seen an increase in the demand for wedding dresses and occasion wear in particular.

Firefighters in Lichfield staged a barbecue in front of the fire station in Birmingham Road from noon on the day of the Royal Wedding. The station was also open for guided tours and there was a special appearance from the Staffordshire Fire and Rescue service mascot Welephant.

A tree was planted at the National Memorial Arboretum to mark the special occasion. Major General Patrick Cordingley DSO, chairman of the National Memorial Arboretum Appeal, who commanded the Desert Rats in the first Gulf War, planted the tree. The patron of the National Memorial Arboretum Appeal is the newlywed Prince William.

The tree, Cornus Controversa, originates from Japan and Korea but has been grown in the UK since the 1880s. Its common name is the Wedding Cake Tree - so called because its layered branches form tiers like a wedding cake.

Meanwhile, a Lichfield-born hair stylist, provided the Royal Wedding look for a former homeless woman who was invited to attend the big day at Westminster Abbey.

Warren Holmes, international creative director of Nicky Clarke, styled Shozna's hair ready for the wedding. The 20-year-old's surname is kept secret to protect her identity.

After suffering a stroke and homelessness in 2009, homeless charity Centrepoin, of which Prince William is an ambassador, helped Shozna back into a home and introduced to her to the prince himself.

RIGHT ROYAL PARTY

THE bunting was put up, the tables set out and the sandwiches and Pimms prepared as weeks of planning was finally put in place for celebratory street parties.

Across the UK more than 5,500 official parties took place to mark the wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton with more than 30 in the West Midlands.

Added to that were a high number of smaller celebrations in cul-de-sacs, houses and pubs, like at Cannock's Bar Sport and the Cross Keys in Penkridge.

The festivities to mark the big day took weeks of preparation, with celebrations taking place in Burntwood, Lichfield and Hednesford.

Around 50 people attended a party in Redlock Field, Lichfield, on the day of the wedding with everyone dressing up in red, white and blue and bringing a plate of food to add to the table.

Co-organiser Mandy Skidmore brought a giant Jenga and Connect Four to her front garden for revellers to enjoy a few games. Neighbour, Kate Durrant, organised items for a tombola, while Nicola Rich put together some races, and even a tug-of-war between the dads.

Mandy said: "Everyone has been excited about the street party and it is great to see the whole road coming together."

"When we held the first meeting we worried there would be objections, but everyone has been keen to let their hair down and have a good time."

Gazebos

Another Redlock Close resident Cathy Spencer said: "Our cul-de-sac was perfect for organising a street party as there is no passing traffic. Most of my neighbours can remember when they organised a party for Charles and Diana's wedding, and some even recall the Queen's Jubilee celebrations in 1977."

"Wallpaper pasting tables and garden furniture were used to put food on and people had few gazebos that could be set up in front gardens in case it rained."

"Each person in the street was responsible for decorating their home - with prizes being given to the best decorated house."

In Burntwood, people partied away in Telford Close. Organiser Adrian Bates said: "Socialising is a very important part of any community and the Royal wedding is an event people will remember for a long time."

Meanwhile at one of the largest street parties, in Hednesford, the big screens on which the Royal wedding was due to be broadcast failed to arrive.

Organiser Linda Whitehouse received a phone call from the rental company the night before to say it had accidentally double-booked.

Instead revellers who had gathered in Market Street crammed into the Lightworks shopping mall to watch the special event. Despite the setback, Mrs Whitehouse said: "It's great how the community have pulled together. Everybody seems to have taken it well."

Hawkins Coffee House owner Pauline Hawkins served up more than 300 hot drinks before 11am, while town traders organised a Victorian-themed party to mark the historic event. Julie Allatt, and her daughters, Kelly and Steffi, used the day to launch their new cake business Vintage to a Tea, making 350 homemade cakes and 100 scones.

Fundraising skydive has Helen hitting the heights

Helen Burgin with parents Tim and Jill

FOR a 31-year-old who said she'd never done anything like it in her life, Helen Burgin seemed to quite enjoy her death-defying leap from several thousand feet in the sky.

Last Friday (April 29), Helen completed a charity parachute jump to raise money for Rugeley Lions and admitted it was quite an experience.

Helen's parents are heavily involved in the running of the small charity, which she said often went unnoticed but which did valuable work in the local community.

Mum Jill, who is the Rugeley Lions president, and dad Tim regularly spend their weekends fundraising and Helen said she wanted to help. "They do so much for the Lions and I've always wanted to do something like a parachute jump, so it made sense to combine the two and raise some money," Helen said.

"It was amazing to do and very surreal."

Partner

Helen, who did her tandem jump at Tilstock Airfield in Shropshire, said she was very nervous before hand but her jumping partner helped calm her down.

"He'd done 7,000 jumps before so he was very chilled out - it was like hopping on a bus for him," she added.

Boot sale for church

AN outdoor car boot sale in aid of a Hednesford church takes place this weekend.

Sellers are asked to arrive at 9am for the sale at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Uxbridge Street, on Saturday (May 7). The sale starts at 10am and refreshments will be served.

The last sale raised £202.

To book a table, contact Dawn on 01543 423234.

"Fortunately it was a bit cloudy so I couldn't see the ground until we'd dropped through the clouds."

So far the Rugeley resident has raised close to £500 for the Lions and said her parents were very proud of her.

"Rugeley Lions is such a small group, but hopefully I've done something to help," she said.

The Lions will be holding a family fun day this Saturday (May 7) at The Horns Inn, Slinging Mill, Rugeley, from 12.30pm-4.30pm.

Admission is free.

Melody Hossaini - hopeful

Melody calls Apprentice tune

A FORMER Great Wyrley High School pupil is the latest ultra-confident contestant from Staffordshire to go face-to-face with Lord Sugar on The Apprentice.

Melody Hossaini describes herself as a "global youth sector entrepreneur" who has worked with the likes of Bishop Desmond Tutu and the Dalai Lama.

Ahead of the new series, which begins on the BBC next Tuesday (May 10), the 26-year-old declared: "Don't tell me the sky's the limit when there are footprints on the moon."

Miss Hossaini, who lives in Walsall and drives a flash white Mini Cooper with a personalised number plate, claims to have been born "amongst war" in Iran, being kidnapped from her own home and held at gunpoint.

She moved to the UK as a teenager and went on to become the founder and director of InspirEngage International.

At school, she made the headlines when she collected 800 signatures in support of a youth parliament.

Parliament

Miss Hossaini speaks five languages - Farsi, Swedish, English, German and French - and has a 2:1 law degree from Oxford Brookes University. She claims "social justice, young people and enterprise" are her passions and Queen Rania of Jordan and her mother are her role models.

On her website, Melody says: "Success and passion are two words which are in close proximity to each other in my mind. When I was 13 years old, I had just moved to England and whilst my friends spent their weekends in town, I was sitting in the Houses of Parliament working with a group of talented people to come up with new strategies for youth engagement in the UK."

"That's passion - and when you're able to turn your passion for a good cause into a successful business model, then you're a social entrepreneur."

She follows in the footsteps of other Apprentice candidates from the region including Kate Walsh, from Hednesford, who was runner-up in 2009.

Promoter Ron pays tribute to pal Enery

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

"THERE'LL never be anybody else like Henry."

And Ron Gray should certainly know. One of Cannock's most famous sons this week shared with The Chronicle his memories of old friend Henry Cooper, who died on Sunday aged 76.

Tributes have flooded in from all quarters to the man known by an adoring British public as "our Enery" and Gray, who made his name as a successful boxer and promoter, said the national reaction had been wonderful.

He fought on the same bill as Cooper during both of his famous bouts against Muhammad Ali, at Wembley in 1963 and Highbury in 1966. The pair, who would become close friends, first spoke in 1962 when Cooper took some time out to school the then 18-year-old Gray on a flight back from a bout in Sweden.

"He just came and sat next to me on the plane and started giving me all this advice - we've been friends ever since," said Gray. "That's the kind of person he was - a true gentleman who had time for anyone."

When Gray retired he moved into promotion and his first event was at the Wolverhampton Civic Hall in 1974, where who else but Cooper the star of the show.

"Henry was the guest of honour and the roar that night was so loud you could have heard it in Birmingham. He said to me 'I can't understand all these people cheering Ron, it's wonderful'."

"You just couldn't have met a better and nicer person and he was the same with the public as he was at home. A great ambassador for boxing and a true gentleman."

Gray and Cooper's family kept in regular contact but Cooper's wife Albina and brother George both passed away in recent years.

Pals Ron Gray and Henry Cooper

"He'd changed a lot since his wife died," Gray added.

"George too, last year, was a huge loss and Henry had a broken heart."

"I spoke to him a month ago and he said he hoped to come to the Midlands soon. I never thought he wouldn't make it. It's sad."

Millions

Cooper raised millions of pounds for charity, and Gray said: "Everyone who met him couldn't believe how genuine he was with them - he just had that gift."

"When you shook hands with Henry Cooper you felt that he really wanted to shake hands with you. As I put on a poster once - he put the Great into Great Britain."

"He was a great fighter and a great friend."

Save the Children fun day

Preet Chandy with children Ava Hopley (aged five), Abbie Willimont (four), Zane Hopley (three) and Skye Smallman (eight)

CHILDREN had fun in Cannock town centre as money was raised for charity.

The family fun day on Saturday (April 30) was held in the grounds of St Luke's Church to raise funds and awareness of Save the Children.

The event featured craft stalls, a bouncy castle, slides, refreshments and a balloon race.

Preet Chandy, who organised the event and is volunteer campaigns coordinator for Save the Children, said: "It has been quite a blustery day so it's been a bit difficult for the balloon race, but in all it has been a good day for us all."

"What we wanted to do was raise awareness and money for the charity."

"It has been quite a community event and we have had a lot of things sponsored or donated to us by local businesses."

"It had been a great day and we are glad we held it. The sun has been shining and the turn-out hasn't been too bad. I want to thank everyone who has helped."

Protest as plots run wild

OVERGROWN allotments in Cannock, left unoccupied for three years, have been branded a "complete disgrace".

Councillor John Kraujalis said that the St John's Road allotments, in Laburnum Avenue, on the Mosswood Estate, were neglected. After contacting Cannock Chase Council for a second time in November 2009, he was assured the site would be cleared.

The allotments were cut back and set for rental but, nearly 18 months, on, the councillor claims there is an ever-growing waiting list and the site is once again overgrown.

Flourishing

Councillor Kraujalis (Cannock South) said: "I will bring this issue up at the next full council meeting whether I am still a councillor or not because this is a complete disgrace."

"Some people have been on the waiting list for more than five years. Other allotments are flourishing because of our hard work and I can't understand why the council won't let us take charge of this one."

Allotments on the nearby Longford Estate have proved to be a hit after the councillor and residents took charge three years ago.

The group pay the council rent to maintain the 23 plots and have requested the same arrangement at Laburnum Avenue, without success.

No-one was available to comment at Cannock Chase Council.

Open day for young anglers

AN OPEN day to attract more members to Staffordshire Youth Anglers takes place this weekend.

Saturday's free event (May 7) takes place at Carney Pools, Wolsley Bridge, from 10.30am to 3.30pm and features try-it pegs, barbecue, tombola, casting competition, cake stall, bait boat race and an auction.

Rugeley Town Council chairman Councillor Mick Grocott will also be dropping in.

Staffordshire Youth Anglers has members aged from eight to 22. For more details call Carol Parkes on 07505 833319.

Garden contest blooms again

KEEN gardeners are being urged to enter the Burntwood in Bloom competition.

Categories in the town council contest include best commercial premises, best dressed shop or office, and best pub or club.

The council is also looking for entries from people aged under 12 and over 12, best front and back garden, best container and best hanging basket, while a prize will be given for the best community project or premises. Entries in the best front garden and back garden categories will be entered into an overall winner category. The prize for overall winner is £100, first prize for each category is £50, second is £30, and third £10.

Closing date for entries is July 13. Visit www.burntwood-tc.gov.uk for a form or call the town council office on 01543 677166.

Brownies get insight into role of PCSOs

RUGELEY Brownies had a special visit from their local Police Community Support Officers.

PCSOs Liz Dale and Sue Hughes, from Cannock Chase Local Policing Team, talked about their role when they visited the 12th Rugeley Brownies.

The group, which has four Guiders plus 14 girls aged from seven to 10, meets at Western Springs School every Tuesday, during term-time, from 6.30pm to 8pm.

Brownie leader Becky Murphy said: "The girls had a lovely time and couldn't stop talking about it. They said they would love to come and see the police station."

For more information about the 12th Rugeley Brownies, call Becky Murphy on 07505 809153.

MAYPOLE dancers took to the streets of Rugeley to bring a touch of tradition back into the old market town.

May Day celebrations were held in the town last Saturday (April 30) and dance troupe Studio 5 were the star attraction as they performed a traditional maypole dance.

Event organiser Angi Cooney, a member of the Rugeley Traders, said: "We want to see this as an annual event and make it a day that happens and all the community becomes involved."

"We also want to buy our own maypole and encourage local schools to use it. When I was younger, this is what Rugeley was all about."

It was just a fabulous day," said Angi, adding: "It was an old fashioned market town and we want to see that again. I want people to have fun, shop and stay local, too."

The event also saw traditional market stalls, bunting made by the guides and Victory Christian Centre, street entertainers and also the launch of the R Factor, Rugeley's answer to the X Factor.

There will be another market in Brook Square, Rugeley, on Saturday (May 7).

Pet store in charity initiative

A PET store in Cannock hopes to dish up a cash treat to local animal charities as part of a national fundraising drive.

Pets at Home aims to raise more money than ever for its established charity, Support Adoption for Pets.

The fundraising drive will boast an array of awareness workshops and activities about pet adoption while collecting donations for other local charities. It runs from tomorrow (May 6) until next Friday (May 13).

Store manager Steve Spiers said: "We really look forward to these fundraising weeks as they give us the chance to raise awareness of pet adoption and raise money for the same time."

"There are some great prizes to be won, as well as our workshops where people can meet the pets looking for a second chance of happiness in a loving home."

Raffle tickets will be on sale for £1 at all stores giving customers the chance to win free pet food for a year, a six month magazine subscription to 'Your Dog' or 'Your Cat' magazines, Pets at Home gift vouchers and a Biorb Life 30 litre lifestyle fish tank.

Advice event is aimed at village elderly

A SENIOR citizen support group in Heath Hayes will be holding an information event for elderly residents in the area.

Representatives from organisations across Cannock will be on hand at the free drop-in session, on Tuesday May 17, from 2pm until 4pm, at the Welcome Club on Hedgesford Road.

Visitors can pick up information on everything from safety on the streets to security in the home and talk to professionals about any concerns or questions they may have. Refreshments will be available.

Also, on Saturday May 21, the support group will be hosting a table-top sale at Bourne Methodist Church, from 10am until 2pm.

Anyone wishing to hire a table should contact Val on 01543 425637 or Jill on 01543 275173.

Breakfast date for businesses

INDEPENDENT Business and Breakfast networking club is holding a repeat seminar of Marketing on a Shoestring to give an extra boost to local businesses.

The group, which covers Rugeley, Brecon and surrounding areas meet fortnightly to increase their commercial knowledge and share ideas.

The seminar takes place on Wednesday May 11, at St Thomas's Priory golf Club, Armitage Lane, Rugeley, at 7am, for coffee and registration. Admission is £10 which includes a full English breakfast plus a copy of the seminar notes.

To book a place call Linda Whitehouse on 01543 878111 or Jane Pallister on 07775 730466.

School is top of the class in Ofsted report

A RUGELEY school is celebrating after receiving a glowing Ofsted report.

Staff at Fair Oak Business and Enterprise College was described by inspectors as "a good and improving school" with "outstanding features".

Head Christine Hardman said: "Their visit was an opportunity for us to show off the good work that we do and to get recognition for the high standards that we are attaining. "The inspectors based their judgement on many classroom observations and it is pleasing that there was an unusually high proportion of outstanding lessons observed - a tribute to the thorough planning and professionalism of the staff, coupled with the commitment to learning by the students."

"We are particularly proud of our judgement of outstanding for safe-guarding. Earlier this year we were the first school in the county to receive the silver award for our work on the Every Child Matters agenda and the safety and happiness of our students are as important as academic success."

"The report comments on our personalised intervention which ensures that the needs of all students are met and that the school provides a safe, supportive environment."

Taste of Italy at town bar

DINERS can enjoy a seven-course Italian banquet at a Cannock bar on Sunday, May 15.

The family lunch, at Bar Sport's Premier Suite in High Green, is being prepared by Carmine Scaringi of Bella restaurant, in Wolverhampton.

Lunch is being served from noon to 5pm and the day will feature an Italian singer, live musicians and a magician.

Under-5s eat free. Call 01543 572092 to book.

Fashion show

A BARBARA Powell fashion show, organised by PACE 2000, is being held at the Peace Memorial Hall, Pinfold Lane, Penkridge, from 8pm on May 18. Tickets are £6, with buffet and glass of wine. Call 01785 712227.

Summer Chase gigs set to be a sell-out

THIS year's Cannock Chase live concerts look set to be a sell-out.

The outdoor gigs, at Birches Valley Forestry Centre, feature Erasure and Simple Minds.

With seven weeks to go, the concerts look set to be a sell-out with about 4,000 tickets so far sold for each one.

That leaves just over 1,000 remaining for each gig and the Forestry Commission is confident that these will be snapped up in the coming weeks.

Forestry Commission spokesman Alistair Semple, said: "We've got 1,100 left for each so we're confident that they will all be gone."

Sophie Ellis-Bextor will be the support act for Erasure on Friday, June 24. She has notched up three solo albums - Read My Lips, in 2001, Shoot from the Hip, in 2003 and Trip the Light Fantastic in 2007. Her new album Make a Scene is due out on June 6.

Simple Minds will be supported by Starsailor front man James Walsh the following night.

Walsh has been recording an album with American singer/songwriter Suzanne Vega. Including his work with his band, Starsailor, he has sold more than three million albums.

Previous summer concerts on the Chase have included performances by Simply Red, Keane, the Sugababes, Status Quo, Jools Holland and Paul Weller. They were first held in 2006.

Last month it was revealed that the concerts had made a profit for the first time, with £25,000 being made to reinvest into environmental projects.

Tickets for the 2011 gigs are priced at £34.50 from the Forestry Commission box office on 03000 680400, or online at www.forestry.gov.uk/music

MP lends support to ivory surrender campaign

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley has shown his support for elephants by backing the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW)'s ivory surrender.

Conservative MP Mr Burley attended IFAW's campaign launch at the House of Commons and posed with huge elephant tusks. He is calling on members of the public to send in any unwanted items of ivory they may have to IFAW to ensure they do not end up back on the commercial market.

Global

Mr Burley said: "I am pleased to be backing the ivory surrender."

Ipsos MORI polling shows that nearly half of adults in the West Midlands are unaware that elephants have to die before their ivory can be obtained.

"The global illegal trade in wildlife is estimated to be worth £12 bn annually, second only to the illicit trade in drugs and arms. Ivory forms a significant part of this.

Damage as boy, 14, reverses through garden

Couple on move after car driven into house

The house is boarded up after being hit by a car

A COUPLE was forced to move out after a 14-year-old boy accidentally reversed a car into their home, Hayes home, damaging the kitchen.

The boy was left shaken but not seriously injured in the incident in Heath Hayes, at 11.43am on Wednesday (April 27). The homeowner said his wife was in the kitchen at the time of the impact.

He said: "She had just put the washing on and heard an almighty bang. It was an automatic being driven by a 14-year-old. It went full pelt into the house."

The car went through the back fence and garden and struck the back of the semi-detached house. No-one was injured and gas and electricity teams were called out to check the property.

"We have had to move out because we've got no electricity, gas or water," said the homeowner.

The couple had to spend the night in Cannock's Premier Inn and are not sure how long it will be before they can return home.

Resident Annette Veale said: "The car went through the back fence and two concrete posts, smashed through the bins and right into the kitchen."

The bathroom of the adjoining semi was also cracked and the family living there also had to move out overnight.

Caring doctor deserves a long and happy retirement 'Get off your high horses'

MY husband and myself would like to take this opportunity to wholeheartedly agree with Mr John O'Leary's letter (April 14) regarding the retirement of Dr TRK Murty.

Dr Murty has been our family GP for over 30 years and we could not have wished for a better doctor. He cared very much for his patients, he attended to myself on several occasions in the early hours of the morning, one even being Boxing Day at five o'clock! He was always pleasant, polite and respectful and always wanted to help. He did not embrace fancy automatic 'booking in' systems or the like but surrounded himself with pleasant, reliable staff, who took the time to get to know you on first name terms.

Appointments were usually the same day, and his staff were always accommodating with late evening and Saturday morning appointments for emergencies. Referrals to specialists if Dr Murty felt it necessary were done promptly, efficiently, with no fuss or hassle.

On visiting the surgery after receiving the letter stating Dr Murty was retiring I was met by other patients as upset as myself, each one describing Dr

Murty in the same way. He was a kind, caring, professional man who had his patients' best interest at heart.

Dr Murty gave both my husband and myself the very best medical care and I was devastated when I heard the news he was retiring. But on reflection Dr Murty has worked hard for his patients and now thoroughly deserves a long, happy and peaceful retirement.

HOLLY STREET,

I HAVE just read the Lib Dem leaflet for the coming Council Elections.

'Lib Dems have raised pensions' hoorah!

'Lib Dems deliver fuel price cut' hoorah!

What – all on their own? Excuse me but the Conservatives play a part too, so get off your high horses Lib Dems.

The leaflet also quotes 'Conservatives can't win here.'

I shouldn't get too confident if I were you.

Once upon a few decades ago, this whole area was ruled by Labour, but Julian Snow was knocked off his throne, and a recount at Cannock saw Labour's Jennie Lee on her way out. Get your facts right.

Well done Helen on taking plunge

RUGELEY Lions Club would like to thank all who bought tickets for their Easter raffle. Also Wolseley Bridge Garden Centre for their support.

Congratulations to the winners! The raffle raised more than £200 which will go to local charities.

We would also like to say well done to Helen Burgin for her sponsored skydive, which took place on Royal Wedding Day at Whitechurch. Helen paid for the jump herself.

We invite you everyone to come and join us for a Family Fun Day on Saturday May 7 at The Horns Inn, Slitting Mill, from 12.30 until 4.30pm. Admission is free.

Torn on AV vote

I AM extremely torn on how to vote in the AV referendum.

As a lifelong Labour voter I cannot possibly side with David Cameron and the Tories and vote "No".

On the other hand, the standard joke over the years has been "a vote for the Lib-Dems is a wasted vote".

This has proved to be the case, as they have dumped all the policies they were elected on, and become Conservatives themselves, so I cannot vote "Yes" either.

The only thing I can think of to do is to vote – in order of preference!

Economic health reliant on vibrant tourist trade

I WAS shocked to read Councillor David Smedley, Conservative Leader of Lichfield City Council, reported as saying that the economic argument in favour of the hotel forming part of the proposed re-designed city centre scheme, should outweigh any concerns about its appearance.

So much for the aesthetic case we may have been imagining was strongly supported by our elected local politicians.

Even one of his colleagues on the LDC was reported as saying "this building doesn't suit the context of its surroundings" but it seems that Councillor Smedley considers the needs of the end user must be taken into account in order to ensure the project's viability.

To a very large extent the economic health of Lichfield depends on a vibrant tourist trade.

One of the things that will bring visitors back and back is that they find Lichfield to be a city which has successfully maintained something of its characteristic charm and appearance.

In the long run that is also how the prosperity of hoteliers, retailers, service providers (and all their employees) and residents will be best served. And it will be how the economic health of Lichfield will be maintained.

It is sad to see what a poor standard of design is demonstrated in a project for which the present City Council has been responsible – the miserable appearance and poor signage of the Community Hall on Darwin Park cannot be proudly shown to visitors.

What a pity that the original ambitious plans, introduced when the City was under different leadership, were not adhered to.

The local elections provide a good opportunity for the future City and District Councils to represent more accurately the broader views of the electorate. I certainly hope that there is a record-breaking turnout of voters who will do just that.

Trust thanks for Shoebox Appeal

INTERNATIONAL Aid Trust would like the opportunity to thank Chadsmoor Methodist Church, for their fundraising towards our Shoebox Appeal.

Jayne Ryder, of Chadsmoor Methodist Church, recently organised a coffee morning, which raised almost £200.

We wish to acknowledge her efforts, together with the continued support of this congregation.

As Area Coordinator, I feel it is equally important to enable our supporters to see who benefits from their donations.

These precious gifts are vital to show needy people we care and underline the fact that the Shoebox Appeal, by International Aid Trust, who now work in 40 different countries, is an all-year round Appeal, NOT just at Christmas time.

Last year over seven and half thousand Shoeboxes were sent from this area of Cannock and Stafford, every one precious, to help in a practical way and lift the Spirit of those receiving them.

Should anyone wish to volunteer, either at Penkridge or in our charity shops in Heath Hayes or Hedgesford, or simply wish to know more about the Shoebox Appeal, please get in touch with myself on 01785 713793.

REFRESH - REDRESS - RECYCLE

This is a new concept for collecting textiles where the money comes back to you.

The high costs associated with traditional door to door collection methods mean that the charities that do not have their own shops (which are the majority of them) only benefit to the tune of between 20p and £1 for a 10kg bag, and much less for bags in clothing bags. By comparison a 10kg bag under the Cash4Clothes scheme will generate £5.00.

Door to door schemes are labour intensive and involve the distribution of more than a hundred million donation bags every year, the vast majority of which are thrown away unused.

With Cash4Clothes you use any bags, and then just call our dedicated number to arrange a collection. Our collectors will weigh your bags and pay £0.50 per Kg for the items - this equates to £500 per tonne - or £5.00 for a 10kg bag.

All clothing collected by Cash4Clothes is sold to importers and wholesalers in Eastern and Western Europe, Africa and Asia for reuse as clothing. Regardless of whether clothes are given to charities, clothing banks, council collections or Cash4Clothes, this is where the goods are sold. 80% of unwanted clothing goes for reuse as clothes and the other 20% enters the recycling industry for mattress stuffing, automotive applications, socks, blankets and the industrial wiper trade.

As a nation we throw away over 1 million tonnes of clothes every year and DEFRA considers textiles as the fastest growing item entering the waste stream.

If you want to donate part or all of your proceeds from a Cash4Clothes collection to a charity, there are options on the web which enable this to be done efficiently - www.justgiving.com can convert a £10 donation into a gift of £12 to a charity of your choice if you are a UK taxpayer.

Getting to grassroots of football coaching

This is your chance to be in squad for this major show

CALLING all you sports fans, the Grass Roots Football Show is back for 2011 and promises to be bigger and better than ever.

This year's must attend football event will take place at The NEC in Birmingham on Friday June 3 - Sunday June 5.

The Grass Roots football family have shown their support since the show launched in 2005 with over 60,000 attendees making it the biggest event of its kind in Europe.

2011 is set to be the biggest yet with new show ambassador Robbie Savage being joined by a host of the biggest names in football. The Derby County and former Welsh international has developed a keen interest in football coaching and the development of junior football as he comes to the end of his illustrious career.

He said: "This is the best show of its kind in Britain and deserves an ever greater platform and profile."

Opportunity

"I am the proud parent of two young sons who are starting out on the grass roots footballing ladder. It is vital that all young children in this country - boys and girls - are given the very best coaching development as they grow up."

"This show encourages the development of coaches and of best coaching practice. Most of all, it's vital that our youngsters enjoy playing football and are encouraged to continue playing the game at adult level too."

"This show offers an opportunity for all of the thousands of coaches and those involved in the grass roots game to meet up with the professionals and learn and showcase new skills, coaching clinics and be educated and entertained."

"I have the utmost admiration and respect for all the junior football coaches who devote their time, money and energies into giving our young people a chance to play organised football."

Grass Roots Football Director, Joanna Burns, said: "Grass roots football is one of the hottest topics in sport at the moment. With major announcements due in the coming weeks, we are planning the most exciting show in the history of the event and we can't wait to get started."

"This year we have more coaches, more experts, more players and greater participation and we aim to reinforce the Grass Roots Football Show as the must attend event for coach education and development in the UK. We are urging all of the football family to come and get involved, have fun and learn from the very best football people."

The Grass Roots Football Show is the premier destination for the grass roots football family with leading sports brands, governing bodies, coaches and youngsters attending.

More than 50 people attend community litter-pick event

Local residents, police and scouts work together on the community litter-pick at Etching Hill Mount

Etching Hill residents Mr and Mrs Draper get stuck in Rubbish day is a huge success

A LITTER pick attended by more than 50 Etching Hill residents has been hailed as a big success.

Organised by Geoff Brookes, one of seven 'resident champions' recruited by the Connecting Communities Project, the litter pick took place in Etching Hill Mount.

It was followed by a community walk and a small lunch at the Church of Holy Spirit.

Staffordshire Police were in attendance, as were members of the 2nd Rugeley Scouts and students from Fair Oak Business and Enterprise College. The Lander Local History Society presented the history of Etching Hill in a display at the church.

Mr Brookes, who has lived in Etching Hill since 1966, said the purpose of the event was to make the Mount a safe place for children to play in and enjoy.

"The community day was about getting the local community together to address a common issue," he added. "The Mount is a beautiful place for residents to enjoy, but the increase in broken glass and litter is ruining this space."

"I would personally like to thank all those that gave up their time to support this event."

"The support shown was superb and it goes to show that community spirit does still exist and local people will work together to improve their local area."

The Connecting Communities Project has recruited seven resident champions who live in around Rugeley. They are fully trained and will be able to give residents advice and support regarding community issues

Hodnet Gardens trip offer

GARDEN lovers are being invited to sign up for a summer afternoon out in Shropshire next month.

Wolsley Bridge Garden Centre, based on the A51 between Rugeley and Stafford, has organised a trip to Hodnet Hall Gardens on Friday June 3.

The centre's horticultural manager, John Lord, will accompany visitors around the Gardens, which are renowned as being amongst the finest in the country.

The coach will depart from Wolsley Bridge at 11.15am and return at around 4.30pm.

Ian Byrne, manager of Wolsley Bridge Garden Centre, said: "Hodnet Hall Gardens is 60 acres of beautiful woodland with impressive lakeside gardens and ornamental pools. "The gardens have stunning collections of azaleas, magnolias, camellias and rhododendrons.

"We hope that lots of people join us for what looks set to be an entertaining and inspirational day out."

Brunch

There have been gardens at Hodnet since the 11th century when the Heber-Percy family constructed their first house in the parkland.

The family's serious development of the gardens began in 1921 by the late Brigadier Heber-Percy.

Tickets for the trip must be purchased in advance from the garden centre's customer service desk.

They cost £25 per person and include coach travel, brunch and entry to Hodnet Hall Gardens.

Cup of cheer as clubs back Japan appeal

SOROPTIMISTS

SOROPTIMIST International of Cannock & District joined forces with Cannock Lions, Cannock Rotary and Hednesford Town Football Club to raise funds to support Japanese people following the dreadful earthquakes and tsunami.

Tuesday April 12 was Cup Final night when the Pitmen – were playing the second leg of the Red Insure Cup Final tie at home to Hemel Hempstead.

Club chairman Steve Price invited the three service clubs to sell tickets for the match and a two course meal, to hold a raffle at that function and to carry out a bucket collection on the terraces. Raffle prizes were donated by the four clubs. Everyone was incredibly generous and a total of £500 was raised.

When added to money raised at a raffle at Hednesford Town two weeks ago, and along with donations from Steve Price and local businesses, £1,000 has been raised for the appeal.

This money will be divided between the three clubs.

Cannock Soroptimists will send their money to their International Emergency Appeal, the Lions send theirs to their International Aid co-ordinator and Rotary will use theirs to fund a shelter box.

Discussions of how the service clubs can continue to work with the football club are already under way.

Soroptimists are very grateful to Hednesford Town for inviting them to be present and send their congratulations to the team on winning the cup.

Organist pulls out stops to entertain

ON Thursday April 14, the ladies enjoyed a very entertaining and amusing evening with Penny Wheat about 'The Perils of a Public Speaker'.

She mentioned how things can go wrong before you even get to speak such as being at the wrong meeting or wrong place or even getting lost.

At the Grange, at Hazel Slade on April 26, members were privileged to hear the wonderful sounds of a Compton pipe organ and an electric organ in a small, atmospheric theatre. Some 23 ladies attended who all received a glass of wine on entry. Gifted organist Steve Tovey who played at the Birmingham Odeon for 25 years, performed on both organs and revealed many fascinating facts about them and the theatre.

CHASE TERRACE LADIES

There are only three Compton organs left in the country – there used to be 400! Steve played many well known tunes and many of the ladies sang along. While he was playing on the electric organ he was joined by Cameron Lloyd playing on the Compton. They played 'Oh I do like to be beside the Seaside'. Steve was also kind enough to play Happy Birthday to Maureen and had helpers serving the buffet in the interval.

All these people are volunteers and belong to the Cannock Chase Cinema Organ Club. The finale was the showing of the Laurel & Hardy film 'The Music Box' made in 1932. The next meeting is on Thursday May 12 at the usual venue, Sankeys Corner Library, at 7.30pm.

Another two lady members join up

CANNOCK LIONS

CANNOCK Lions Club has welcomed two new members into their club, Helen Addiss and Maria Tucker.

They were inducted at the Roman Way Hotel.

Beverley Stanter and Karol Jones sponsored Helen and Maria and they will guide and help them settle into the club. Cannock Lions Club is the largest club in the Zone with 27 members, 17 of which are ladies.

Work to start in close season on £1m club stand

Gymnasts help to bag up funds

SUPERMARKET shoppers were given a helping hand packing their bags by helpful gym students. Youngsters from the Birches Valley Gymnastics Club helped pack shoppers' bags at Cannock's Morrisons store.

The event was held so the club could raise money, and a total of around £300 was collected on the day from generous donations.

Coach Sue Molloy said there were around 20 members of the club helping to pack.

"It went really well and we had a good day," she said.

"We did it so we could raise some extra funds for the club so we can buy new equipment."

"We need things such as crash mats, and pads, and some pre-gym equipment. Everyone was very generous and happy that we were there to help with their shopping."

"We also did it so it could raise our profile," she added.

The club has been running for around 25 years and has recently moved to the Cedars Business Park on Avon Road, Cannock.

A NEW £1m stand at Chasetown Football Club should be in place before the start of next season.

The club aims to have the new £1m 500-seat stand ready for the start of the 2011/12 Evo-Stik League campaign in August.

Club press officer Dave Goddard said a start date for the work at The Scholars ground in Church Street had yet to be confirmed.

"The funding and planning permission is in place and the aim is to have the stand ready for the first league game. We don't expect it will be ready for pre-season friendly," he said.

Chasetown won £10,000 an online vote to improve stadium facilities. The cash will be spent on toilet amenities with disabled access.

Impact

The stand project is also receiving £30,000 from the Staffordshire Environmental Fund. The club was granted permission for the stand in July last year, but work could not have been done before last season.

The club had to go back to the drawing board after original plans were rejected by Lichfield District Council in 2009 because they could have had an adverse impact on a nearby bypass.

The ambitious club, founded in 1954 as Chase Terrace Old Scholars, needs the stand if it is to make progress up the non-league ladder.

The club employed an FA expert in ground improvements to advise on the scheme.

Meanwhile, the club's annual end of season awards night is to be held on Saturday, May 21 at Walsall's Bank's Stadium, starting at 6.45pm.

Tickets for the night are £30 and available from the club.

The 2010-2011 season saw Chasetown go on another glorious cup run as they reached the quarter-finals of the FA Trophy for the first time before going out to former Football League outfit Mansfield Town in a replay.

Talks over smoke ban on council premises

A MOVE to ban smoking on all council premises in Cannock – including on outside car parks – could be discussed by members.

Cannock Chase District Council's cabinet has studied figures in an NHS report which revealed that life expectancy in the district is shorter than the average of England in eight out of the 15 wards because of smoking and obesity.

Members agreed to sign up to the Staffordshire Smoke Free Charter which tries to cut smoking-related deaths.

Councillor Mick Grocott, culture and sport cabinet member, said: "We should be proactive."

Difference

"I am asking the council whether we should be discussing a measure where smoking is prohibited on outside car parks. I think the council should look at this."

The difference between the ward with the lowest and highest life expectancy in Cannock is seven years for men and nine years for women.

Women in Cannock South, Hawks Green, Heath Hayes East and Wimblebury and Rawnsley have shorter lives than the average.

Cannock Chase has the highest all-age, all-cause mortality (AAACM) rate in Staffordshire – higher than England's average. Seven wards have a higher AAACM rate than the English average.

Children get party started

THE Museum of Cannock Chase joined forces with the district council for a one-off art session to mark the Royal Wedding.

Youngsters attended the drop-in party piece workshop at the museum, in Valley Road, Hednesford, on Thursday, April 21.

They got to work with creative staff from Cannock Chase District Council's art development service who were on hand to help them make everything from bunting and flags to Royal placemats.

Thirty-three children turned up for the crafty afternoon and got to take their special memorabilia home to remember the wedding of the century.

Village group plans book on history of site

A HISTORY group plans to put together a book about a Cannock building that played a key part in the history of computing.

The National Coal Board built a computer centre on the Brookfields site in Walsall Road which pioneered information technology development in the 60s and 70s. The site had been the home of the original Cannock Town FC and during WWII was used to provide accommodation for Bevin Boys that came to work in the mines.

Bridgton and District Local History Society secretary Derrick Middleton said the group was seeking a grant from the Coal Industry Social Welfare Organisation (CISWO) towards research for a book on the site's history.

Mr Middleton, who worked at the computer centre until 1988, said: "The building played a significant part in the development of computing and was a big employer in the area."

The building has been empty for the last 12 months and Mr Middleton said he feared it was likely to be demolished for re-development.

The history society has been in touch with current owners, Altos, about getting hold of archive material to use.

To help with the project, call Mr Middleton on 01543 277268. The society has a meeting at Bridgton Community Centre on May 25 at 7pm.

Challenge to help Marines

A CANNOCK-based electrical engineering company is getting active to raise money for the Royal Marines Charitable Trust.

Led by employee and former Marine Matt Collins, ide Systems has a team of 12 entering the annual Commando Challenge at Woodbury Common, Lympstone near Exeter – the Royal Marines' training centre.

The two-day event in May involves more than 4,000 entrants and includes a 17km endurance run. Prizes are given for a variety of achievements including the fastest team and individual to take part.

The charity, similar to Help for Heroes, helps those suffering long-term effects of injuries sustained in service and assists with retraining for new careers.

Team captain Matt Collins will be leading the "Cannock Commandos", made up of team sponsor ide Systems' employees and a number of ex-servicemen.

Driving lessons offer as tribute to crash victim

FREE driving lessons are being offered by a Cannock instructor in memory of a Rugeley man who died in a car accident.

Ashley Burton, a former Cardinal Griffin RC High School pupil, of Main Road, Brereton, died in February 2010 after an accident at Cannock's Orbital ring road.

Helen Sadler, aged 39, who runs the Drive with Direction Driving School, is a friend of the 22-year-old's family. She will offer free driving lessons for someone every year. Ashley's mother Judith will decide on the person who should receive the service.

Helen said: "I want people to write to me, or it can be a relative of someone, who needs financial help or struggles to pay for things because they are a carer – someone in that kind of predicament."

Helen will then pass on the people's details to Ashley's mother and she will choose who she thinks is in most need of free lessons.

"I will pay for all their lessons, but they will still have to pay for their own theory and main test," added Helen.

People can get in touch with Helen on 07813 214664. The offer is open for people until June 15 and will be relaunched in April 2012.

Sensory room is unveiled in pilot project

A PIONEERING project at a Rugeley school has seen a brand new multi-sensory room unveiled.

The room, at Hagley Park Sports College, has been introduced as part of a pilot scheme, the Positive Support Programme, run in conjunction with Derbyshire County Council. Hagley is the only secondary school in Staffordshire to pilot the programme. The sensory room, designed to calm or stimulate students using each of their senses, was unveiled last month.

The Positive Support Programme is aimed at helping young people with their self-esteem, improving their social skills and their ability to discuss feelings, concerns and worries. Positive Support Programme manager and founder Sharon Brown and trainer Louise Gough officially opened the room and met students to discuss its benefits. Governors and head Liz Merryman attended the unveiling.

Students will work one-on-one with Hagley Park teaching assistants Tracey Loasby or Holly Jarvis, who have successfully completed the Positive Support training scheme.

Web users' anger at mess on Chase

Dance teacher Heather Roberts will hold the final Saturday evening dance at the Aquarius Ballroom

The last dance as ballroom to close

A DANCE teacher from Cannock is to host the last ever Saturday evening dance at Hednesford's Aquarius Ballroom.

Heather Roberts, of Heath Hayes, will oversee the final dance of its kind at Victoria Street venue on May 28. The Aquarius is being demolished to make way for the regeneration of the town centre.

Mrs Roberts has also launched a programme of classes, specialising in old time, classical sequence, modern sequence, latin and modern ballroom.

Beginners classes are held at Heath Hayes Constitutional Club on Wednesday nights. For full details of all times and venues visit www.sequencedancingmidlands.co.uk or call 07726 308595.

INTERNET users have complained about the mess left by users to the Chase over the Easter weekend.

A Facebook group, set up to safeguard the future of Cannock Chase, has complained about tourists visiting the beauty spot.

Posting on What Future for Cannock Chase Forest? Marcus Clay, said: "I've lived on the Chase for over six years and notice that 'crunch' point, in terms of activity and litter, is usually over the first fine weather and/or Easter. "By July, the novelty has worn off for the grunting masses," he added.

Dean Peach wrote: "I noticed there were people picking up dog mess with plastic bags at Seven Springs, but leaving them hanging in bushes and on paths."

Giles Jones said: "Myself and a bunch of other mountain bikers rode over the lawn area on Sunday and the lawn was covered in disposable BBQs, rubbish and cans. Some people are really selfish."

Paul Jeremy added: "I drove past Marquis Drive on bank holiday Monday and cars parked all along the road made it near enough impassible."

Trash

"And there was a BBQ on the go in the field area."

"It's meant to be an area of natural beauty not an area of let's see if we can trash it in one weekend!"

Edel Hancox said: "I've stopped taking my daughter up there now after me and my friend's son trod in dog mess - not to mention the amount we stepped around."

Philip Frid said: "Me and my friend were up there and we ended up getting abuse off four men and a woman who were drinking."

The Forestry Commission's Jason Maclean said the Chase often had problems with litter, discarded barbecues and campfires during the spring bank holidays.

Return for workshops

YOUTH theatre workshops returned to Cannock last Saturday (April 30).

Workshops for seven to 11-years-olds run from 10am to 11.30am at the Prince of Wales Centre, in Church Street, and 12 to 18-year-olds from 11.30am to 1pm.

There will be a performance for parents at the end of term.

History fair

THE Friends of the Museum of Cannock Chase host a local history fair at the Valley Road, Hednesford, museum, from 11am to 4pm on Sunday, May 15.

Bulldozers move in to raze the Woodman Inn in Cheslyn Hay to the ground

Locals' upset as historic pub demolished

A 200-YEAR-OLD pub in Cheslyn Hay is being demolished, crushing regulars' hopes that it would be taken over and revamped.

Locals say they had no idea The Woodman Inn in Brook Road, which closed last year, had been earmarked for demolition.

Just two years ago, regulars rallied round to carry out a makeover at the pub in a bid to boost business. The once-popular drinking venue was losing almost £3,000 a week at one point, partly due to the rundown 1970s-style bar. When the brewery, Scottish & Newcastle, refused to fund the £2,000 project, customers took on the job themselves.

But the credit crunch and smoking ban took its toll on the business and the pub eventually closed. It is thought the building is being bulldozed to make way for around five new houses and a bungalow.

South Staffordshire District Council says it has not yet received a planning application for the scheme.

The historic pub has been a landmark in the village for almost two centuries. In 1900 it was used as a coroners court following a fatal mining accident at the Coppice Colliery.

Locals were hoping the pub would be snapped up by another publican. But fencing went up around the site last week and diggers moved in shortly afterwards.

Danielle Zazulak, aged 32, a receptionist who lives opposite, said the pub had been the centre of village life. "My family were teary-eyed watching the place being pulled down," she said.

It's ladies night at pub fundraiser

A CANNOCK pub is hosting a ladies' night to aid a local children's charity.

The Orbital in Eastern Way is staging the event for Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children next Monday (May 9). Entry is £5. Customers will be treated to a glass of Bucks Fizz and a buffet while singer Nicky Newman and dancer Cassie Payne provide the entertainment from 7.30pm. A fashion show will feature clothing from the Newlife superstore in Hemlock Way and clothes will be on sale on the night.

Newlife fundraiser Amy Weiser said: "People will have the opportunity to pick up a great new outfit for a bargain price while supporting a hard working locally based charity which helps disadvantaged children across the UK."

Environmental studies students Phil Daly and Charlotte Burke (front) with tutor Dawn Crossley and warden Scott Petrek planting trees at the Wildlife Trust HQ at Wolseley Bridge

Students tidy up at trust HQ

STUDENTS from Stafford College visited Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's Wolseley Bridge Centre to help out as part of their course.

The students helped to plant trees and tidy-up the area as part of their Next Steps programme, which forms part of their environmental studies.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust communications officer Liz Pegg said: "They have been coming by every couple of weeks volunteering and helping out with improving the grounds."

The students were called in ahead of an event at the visitor centre on Saturday (May 7). A day of talks and demonstrations will be held between 11am and 4pm.

The Trust's Graham Peake will host a talk on making lawns more wildlife-friendly.

Dam repairs: rail hold-ups will continue

COUNCIL chiefs have admitted that work on the Chasewater Dam will hold up the day-to-day running of Chasewater Railway for the foreseeable future.

Passengers have been told they cannot use the whole rail line as the dam's contractors have had to remove some of the tracks. Railway chiefs have stopped charging the full fare.

The £3m restoration hit a delay when engineers found a slight variation in the levels of the rail line, which meant contractor Galliford Try needed to tinker with the line's alignment.

The tracks, which belong to the heritage railway, need to be relaid and certified as being safe before the trains can run on them again.

Neil Turner, Lichfield leisure chief said the authority had hoped to hand the rail line back for Easter, and added the council remained grateful for the patience of everyone at Chasewater Railway.

Riders saddle up as builder remembered

by SARAH HAZELWOOD

s.hazelwood@expressandstar.co.uk

A TEAM of cyclists took to the road to help raise nearly £4,000 in memory of a popular Cannock builder.

David Beckett, who lost his battle to prostate cancer, in December, last year, left behind a legacy of buildings and The Beckett Everyman Fund, which he set up after he was diagnosed.

His aim was to raise £10,000 for Cancer Research within 12 months and since he passed away the community has come together to help increase the target to £15,000.

Brother-in-law, Russ James, was joined by 17 other cyclists to cover more than 115 miles from Porthmadog, in North Wales, to Penkridge.

The three day mission started last Friday (April 29) and the riders, ranging from 14 to 48-years-old, returned home to The Cross Keys Pub, in Penkridge, on Sunday.

After a weekend of fundraising the pub hosted a welcome home party for the team and continued to raise even more cash with a raffle and an evening of entertainment.

Russ said: "We all had a fantastic weekend and the generosity of people along the way was amazing."

"Everybody made it to the finish line together and there was a huge reception of people waiting to greet us. It was overwhelming to see the amount of support people were offering to this worthy cause."

"It was a major challenge for everybody involved but we have surpassed our original target and hope to arrange another ride very soon to raise even more money and awareness of the fund."

Local firms also stepped in to provide the team with everything they needed for their challenge, including vehicle support and specially designed T-shirts.

To date the fund has more than £7,500 and the group hopes to add an extra £4,000 through bucket collections and online sponsors from the weekend.

David's sons Alex and Matt both took part in the challenge, one of many set up to hit the target by December 2 – the anniversary of David's death.

Friends are now preparing to take part in a sponsored skydive and the Three Peaks Challenge later this year. To donate visit www.justgiving.com/mustbenutsride or www.russjamesdesign.co.uk/mustbenuts

From signals to singles for ex-sergeant

A FORMER army sergeant is looking for new recruits – for a singles club she has launched.

Tara Turner, who spent 14 years serving in war zones such as Afghanistan, is setting up Singles R Us in Cannock.

Tara was a technical supply specialist working as part of The Royal Signals. Her main role was to look after the army budget which included weapons and equipment.

Tara, aged 31, left the army in January and after splitting from her husband has decided to set up the singles club. She is looking for people in the 25 to 40 age category to sign up.

The group is being formed with the help of Margaret McCullough and Jennifer Thomas who run Fresh Start singles club.

Tara said: "I have recently left the army and I am single now following a divorce. I spent 14 fantastic years in the army and had an excellent social life while I was in there. I feel a little lost now I have left. I have a young son who has a better social life than me at the moment so I thought I would get out there and set up a club for other single people between the ages of 25 and 40.

"I just want it to be a club where people can meet up, form friendships and have a good time together and take part in various organised events. If there is any romance on the cards for members then all well and good, I really feel it will be a great success."

The group will meet every Thursday at the VIP Lounge in Bar Sport from 8pm with the first meet and greet event taking place on May 12.

Singles R Us then plan to arrange days and nights out and eventually weekends away. The events could include days at the races, meals out and go-karting but the itinerary hasn't been decided yet.

Tara added: "I do think there is a niche out there for a singles club for the 25 to 40-year-old category and I hope lots of people come along on the night."

Membership for the club will be £52 per year.

Dieting couple set for match of the day Football fans cannot weight to tie the knot BURGERS and hot dogs after a Walsall FC match used to be something that Steve Shaw and Nicola Turner looked forward to.

However, since starting a joint diet, they have lost almost five stone between them and are now careful about what they eat.

The couple, who live in Chase Road, Burntwood, are getting married in June at Walsall FC's Banks's Stadium and Nicola says they were determined to lose weight.

They joined the Hammerwich group of Slimming World in December last year and within three months shed the flab to be named the group's couple of the year 2011.

Nicola, who has been overweight since her teens and Steve, a 49-year-old engineer, who has been overweight for 20 years, said they had tried all sorts of diets but had no success.

Steve, who has lost three stone, going from 19 stone to 16, used to wear XXL tops and is now down to just a large.

"I haven't been this small for over 20 years and I love buying new clothes," said Steve.

"We were both fed up with our weight and we knew we couldn't carry on letting it get in the way of our lives."

"It was affecting everything - our health, our confidence and our ability to have fun with our two-year-old son Oliver."

Steve had learned his cholesterol was above the recommended levels and he already suffered from high blood pressure.

Nicola, 24, a physiotherapy assistant, has lost 1st 8lb from her starting weight of 14st 2lb and dropped from size 18 to size 14 clothes.

Nicola says dieting together helped them to lose their weight quickly.

"We were quite competitive and each week waited to see who had lost the most," she said.

TECHNOLOGY

3D dazzles at show

THE Gadget Show Live last month proved a phenomenal success and further established the show at the NEC as the UK's leading consumer technology event.

The show attracted a record attendance figure of 104,759 with around 20,000 consumers visiting each day the show was open to the public.

Based on the popular Five television programme, The Gadget Show Live, the event had over 200 exhibitors showcasing thousands of products.

Visitors trialled exciting gadgetry and had the chance to interact with the latest in 3D, gaming, tech transport and the latest tablets to rival – or under cut in price – the highly desirable iPad.

Those attending the show also experienced technology of the future in the Future Tech Zone, with everything from eye and mind control gaming through to augmented reality and truly wireless technology for the home on display.

More than 67,500 people attended the Super Theatre, which accommodated just under 4,500 visitors three times daily. Presenters from the TV show, Jason Bradbury, Wolverhampton's Suzi Perry, Jon Bentley, Oris Deley and Pollyanna Woodward gave a high-energy performance. The latest in wearable technology from CuteCircuit was also showcased with a specially designed electronic dress made exclusively for Pollyanna.

Several World Records were smashed at this year's show, including the world's lightest touch-screen mobile phone, awarded to sWap and the largest mobile phone gaming party organised by Kick Energy in the Game Zone.

The Gadget Show Live also hosted the first UK viewing of several eagerly anticipated games including DIRT3 from Codemasters (released May 24), the new Duke Nukem game from 2K games and EA's Need for Speed: Shift 2 Unleashed.

The first up-to-28mph street legal e-bicycle, the Grace E Bike was also launched in the UK at the show. Personal Projector showed their new pico range and Wacom had an exclusive preview of their new Stylus Bamboo range for the iPad.

University

The University of Wolverhampton was represented at the show for the second year and were a part of the exciting new possibilities in 3D technology, which were a major element of the show.

Visitors to the university's stand were able to wear 'stereo shutter glasses' and test their skills at forklift truck driving in a 3d virtual reality environment. Academics and students on architecture and design courses have developed stereoscopic 3D virtual environments so buildings can be explored before they are even built.

Two interactive robots developed by lecturers for budding computer engineers to learn theory hands-on and a console-controlled airship designed by final year student Ed Wilson were also on show. Tablets, apps and 3D were the hottest topics across the show. There was a lot of interest in the budget but good looking tablet computers from View Quest and Elonex, which aim to make tablets affordable enough for one per family member rather than one tablet per household.

Gadgets guru Tom Dunmore previewed some of the amazing applications (apps) coming our way and predicted the triumph of the Android market across several tech platforms. It is currently mostly used by mobile phone users and gives access to 30,000 apps, from maps to barcode readers to games. He previewed an instant translation app which you can hold in front of foreign writing, near field communication to find items in shops and virtual money that will make phones/tablets more like a wallet, and just as essential when leaving the home.

3D was everywhere, from Nintendo 3D's no glasses required gaming, to impressive high end 3D TVs and laptops from such as Sony and Panasonic.

Among the quirkier items were California's NeuroSky with their Mindwave headset which allows the user to interact with a programme using their minds, pioneering the ultimate form of hands-free gaming. The wider future of this most sci-fi type of tech, based on brainwave reading medical equipment, is mind-boggling with such projects as mind-controlled wheelchairs being developed.

And for those who hate housework, iRobot's range of vacuum-cleaning bots, which sense the environment around them and can do the vacuuming whilst you are out, were a welcome innovation.

Vision is clear for a Willenhall company

ENERGYSEAL Ltd, of Wolverhampton, is leading the way in the window, door and conservatory trade.

Coming through a major recession and credit crunch, they have seen figures rise, month after month, making it the biggest conservatory supplier in the Midlands.

EnergySeal Premier A1 window and conservatory systems are manufactured using the leading uPVC Synerjy profile, as well as having energy efficient glass and state-of-the-art locking systems.

The company manufactures all its products at the factory based at Planetary Road, Willenhall – just five minutes from the Bentley Bridge complex.

Visit the showroom near Bentley Bridge, Willenhall to see one of the UK's most impressive conservatory displays.

The showroom features six

EnergySeal Ltd's director, David Carter, started the company 10 years ago with his brother Richard full size conservatories where visitors can relax and choose, safe in the knowledge that they won't be pestered or pressurised by salespeople.

Company director David Carter says: "My brother and I went into business together 10 years ago, working from home selling a few uPVC doors and windows.

"Since then we have expanded every year and now boast to be the biggest manufacturers in the business.

"Being a family run business helps us develop year in, year out, keeping everything close knit with no middle man to call the shots.

"I deal with the general public and Richard deals with the trade. So when any enquiries come through to the sales office you are dealing with the company director from the off."

David and Richard also include their wives in the company with leading roles.

Zoe, David's wife, looks after all the enquiries coming through the showroom on a daily basis and Jane, Richard's wife, manages the insulation department alongside Adrian Jackson, the other company director.

This month only, the company has some fantastic offers, including a 3m x 3m conservatory with electric pack from £4,999; any front or back door from as little as £399 and is also running a no deposit offer, so the customer doesn't pay a penny until all the work has been carried out and they are completely satisfied with the end product.

The company is also offering a 10-year insurance backed guarantee which is covered by the Independent Warranty Association (IWA).

EnergySeal Ltd manufactures all windows, doors and conservatories on site at their large factory showroom in Planetary Road. If you're thinking of undertaking any work on your home, either give EnergySeal a call on 01902 866000 or pop into the showroom and chat to their friendly sales staff, who can offer some of the best advice in the industry.

Crooner in home city concert

AVENUES AND ALLEYWAYS LEAD TO GARRICK

CLASSIC crooner Tony Christie makes a welcome return to the Lichfield Garrick tonight (Thursday May 5).

Christie, who lives in Lichfield, hasn't looked back since enjoying a surprising career revival in 2005 when a re-release of Is This the Way to Amarillo spent seven weeks at number one.

Now aged 67, Christie has been in the music business since 1970 and he first became known a year later with number two hit I Did What I Did for Maria. Christie first released Is This the Way to Amarillo later that year but surprisingly it only charted at number 18.

Other hits throughout the 1970s included Avenues and Alleyways and Drive Safely Darling, before Christie's career took a downturn in the 80s.

However he came back to prominence in 1999 as a guest vocalist on the Jarvis Cocker-penned All Seeing I single, Walk Like a Panther.

That renaissance was nothing compared to the success Christie achieved with Amarillo in 2005, which came about following Peter Kay's use of the song on his Phoenix Nights comedy programme.

Kay featured in the official video for the song, which was released to raise money for Comic Relief.

To coincide with the 2006 World Cup, Christie recorded Is This the Way to the World Cup, reaching number eight.

Since then Christie has become a regular on television screens and has continued to tour around the UK, fitting in appearances at V Festival and Glastonbury.

In July last year he made his West End debut in the musical Dreamboats and Petticoats at London's Playhouse Theatre, playing the roles of Older Bobby and Phil.

His new album Now's the Time! was released in February. It features collaborations with Jarvis Cocker and Roisin Murphy and has earned critical acclaim.

Greatest

A spokesman for the Lichfield Garrick said: "Tony Christie has arguably made the finest album of his impeccable career, showcasing his iconic status as one of Britain's greatest singers."

"Don't miss this chance to see Tony in a spectacular concert, which also features his international live band and backing singers."

Tickets for his show are £25 and can be booked online at www.lichfieldgarrick.com. Alternatively call the box office on 01543 4121221.

Christie will also be appearing at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre on July 1. For ticket details, contact the Church Street centre on 01543 578762.

Singer Tony Christie will be performing in Lichfield, where he now lives, on May 5

Buster hits the Bullseye in canine Oliver! role

West Bromwich Operatic Society (WBOS) present Lionel Bart's hugely popular musical Oliver! at the Wolverhampton Grand Theatre from May 10 to 14.

Directed by Mike Capri, Oliver! stars Ben Evans from Wombourne, with Terry Gormley from Kinver as Fagin, Sarah Moors, of Sutton Col-dfield as Nancy, Steve Coussens from Kidderminster as Bill Sykes, Mason Kelly from Sandwell as The Artful Dodger and Callum Mac-Arthur from Walsall as Mr Bumble.

The children's chorus is made up of youngsters from all over the area and includes members of The Grand's Get-In Youth Scheme. Children were recruited following auditions last year. The society also held auditions to find a dog to play Bullseye and the successful applicant was English bull terrier Buster.

At the National Operatic and Dramatic Association Awards last week, WBOS won Best Production 2010 in the Black Country. The Society also won three top awards at this year's Birmingham & District Theatre Guild; Best Direction in a Musical went to Tim Brown and Oliver! Director Mike Capri for last year's Jesus Christ Superstar; long-standing WBOS member John Wetherall won Most Outstanding Male for his role in Beauty and The Beast. The society also scooped the top prize of Outstanding Achievement in a Musical for Beauty and The Beast. In total they were nominated for nine awards.

The Duchess of Dudley Lizzie Wiggins is top of the bill with Brummie comic Don Maclean for a Night At The Musical Hall, the second night of which is being held tonight (Thursday) at The Grand. It also features West Midlands entertainers Dave Sealey, ventriloquist Ken Wood, musicians Adante and Wolverhampton soprano Sheila-Jane Wood, introduced by Duggie Chapman MBE.

Bananas

Illusionist and mind trickster Derren Brown brings his new show Svengali to Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre for 10 dates starting on Monday. It is described as not suitable for the under 12s.

Comedy legend John Cleese comes to Birmingham Hippodrome as part of his alimony tour on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Other comedy highlights include: Saturday, Cbeebies presenters Andy & Mike bring their Big Box of Bananas for a family show at Birmingham Town Hall at 11am; Paul Chowdhry takes political correctness head on in Not PC at Birmingham Town Hall on Saturday evening, or you can catch him at Wolverhampton's Wulfrun Hall on May 13; Trigger Happy TV and jungle veteran Dom Joly recalls his attempt to fly across the Grand Canyon strapped to a rocket and other anecdotes at Birmingham Town Hall on Monday and again at the Wulfrun Hall on Tuesday; Rob Rouse is at the Slade Rooms in Wolverhampton on Tuesday; Iran-born Shappi Khorsandi and Jon Richardson team up at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Thursday, May 12.

Barry Walker's Smackee go back to the 1950s and 60s for nostalgic musical show Memories Are Made Of Hits at Dudley Concert Hall for a 2pm matinee performance on Tuesday.

The stage at Stoke's Regent Theatre is turned into an ice rink for The Imperial Ice Stars' version of Swan Lake on ice from Tuesday to Saturday. That's after Joe Longthorne entertains at the Regent on Sunday for one night only.

Michael Boyd's Macbeth continues at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Stratford, as does Gregory Doran's version of 'lost' Shakespeare play Cardenio at the Swan in the same RSC theatre complex.

The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged!) are performed in around an hour and a half (that's 37 plays in 97 minutes) by the Tread The Boards Theatre Company at Birmingham pub theatre The Old Joint Stock tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday. Finally, Rumchuk present Chekhov's The Bear at the same venue on May 12, at 2pm and 8pm.

Birmingham Crescent Theatre has Six Characters in Search of an Author at the Ron Barber Studio from Saturday, May 7 to 14.

John Cleese - alimony tour

Derren is playing mind games again

BE prepared for a theatrical roller-coaster ride as the master of psychological illusion returns to the stage in Birmingham with a brand new show Derren Brown: Svengali.

With 73 dates so far confirmed across the UK, including ten at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre from Monday, Derren again sets out to show why he is one of the world's most renowned live performers; a master of magic, mind control and manipulation. This is his fifth tour and is expected to sell out as quickly as Derren Brown: Enigman.

The mind-bending performer said: "It'll be a full evening of mind-melting based around audience participation. More than that I wouldn't want to say."

I ask audiences to keep the contents of the show a secret so as not to spoil it for others, and I have to do the same. But I hope it's fun and freaky and a great night out: that's what I aim for."

On stage as well as on TV Derren is in a class of his own. His Mind Control, Trick of the Mind, Trick or Treat and Events programmes have garnered rave reviews and awards. His specials have provoked much controversy and acclaim and further consolidated his reputation as a performer prepared to constantly challenge and break boundaries.

He has also received much praise for his best-selling books, Tricks of the Mind and Confessions of a Conjuror.

He has also enjoyed considerable success in America. In January 2011 Channel 4 celebrated ten years of Derren Brown on TV with Behind The Mischievous.

Tickets cost £30 plus booking fee. See www.alexandratheatre.org.uk for details

On radar

BRITISH and American music very rarely mix, but Big Deal may be the band to change this idea.

The duo, made up of American Kacey Underwood and Brit Alice Costelloe, are the latest band to be announced on this year's NME Radar Tour, which hits Birmingham Academy 2 on May 11.

Tickets are £9, available from www.o2academybirmingham.co.uk

Derren Brown returns to the stage with Svengali

Delta's made sounds of the country with Mersey beat

MAGINE that Dolly Parton was from Liverpool rather than the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee. Now hear Delta Maid.

This 26-year-old singer-songwriter from Wavertree has a voice as keen and clear as country air and is about to make an impact with her debut album, Outside Looking In, which draws upon country and blues music, as much Mississippi as Mersey.

"Sometimes you don't fit a niche," she said. "There's pressure on you to fit in and do the popular thing."

"I know I don't fit the mould but just take a chance and it might work."

Major record label Geffen certainly hope so and the signs look good.

New single Of My Own has been getting Radio 2 airplay and there is a new, younger audience for country-pop crossover music, thanks to such as Taylor Swift and emerging sister act The Pierces.

West Midlands music fans can catch up with the Delta sound when she performs at Birmingham's Glee Club on Monday, May 9, the day her album is released.

Historian's entertaining take on the dark days of WWII

LICHFIELD Garrick Theatre is playing host to two shows – both harking back to days of yore.

An Audience with Terry Deary – Blitz Roadshow, is on Sunday, May 8. It sees the world's most popular children's historian give an entertaining take on the darkest days of World War Two, while Katy Setterfield as Dusty Springfield and Friends in Concert brings a taste of the swinging sixties to town. Terry Deary will be reading tales of humour and heart-break based on the story of his new novel Put Out The Light.

The 90-minute show will include the audience joining in with some famous and forgotten songs from the Blitz, who will also have the chance to put questions to the author.

Katy Setterfield returns to the Garrick next Wednesday, May 11, from a three-month sell out show in Las Vegas with an award-winning portrayal of Dusty Springfield – and will include hits such as Son of a Preacher Man, I Only Want to Be with You, and You Don't Have to Say You Love Me.

Tickets for Terry Deary's show are £15 or £10 for students, while Katy's concert is £17.50. Tickets can be bought from www.lichfieldgarrick.com or by contacting the box office on 01543 412121.

Tribute act John is a Real Diamond

EUROPE'S leading Neil Diamond tribute performer is returning to the Lichfield Garrick.

John Hylton brings his Real Diamond show to the Garrick tomorrow (Friday), backed by a talented band and celebrating Diamond's The Jazz Singer album.

The album was the soundtrack to the film of the same name, which starred Sir Laurence Olivier and was released in 1980.

Diamond wrote the musical score for the film before releasing what became one of his most successful albums.

The UK Neil Diamond Fan Club recently said of Hylton: "Take my advice – you really have to see this man for yourself!"

"John's voice is uncannily like Neil's and he most certainly gives a flawless performance, leaving you wanting more."

Real Diamond will be at the Lichfield Garrick from 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £18.50 and can be booked from www.lichfieldgarrick.com or by calling the box office on 01543 412121.

Top Irish musician in date at Guildhall

ONE of Ireland's most respected performers makes a debut appearance at the Lichfield Guildhall tomorrow night (Friday).

Folk singer Kieran Goss has earned a reputation as an impressive live performer, with an instinctive musicality, warmth and humour.

American country music star Don Williams said of Goss: "This guy is the real deal and that's what makes him the star he is."

Goss, from County Down in Northern Ireland, released his first album in 1989. His most recent studio album For the Record, the seventh release of his career, came out in 2010.

Tickets for the show, which starts at 8.30pm, are priced at £14 for adults, £13 for concessions and £7 for students. To book visit www.lichfieldarts.org.uk or call 01543 262223.

Get Hooked on vocalist Dennis

DR HOOK member Dennis Locorriere brings his long and varied career of songs to Lichfield this weekend.

His Alone Again tour takes in hits from Locorriere's time in Dr Hook & The Medicine Show as well as his more recent solo career.

Born in New Jersey, vocalist and guitarist Locorriere joined the band which launched his career in 1969 and the group first saw success three years later with debut single Sylvia's Mother.

That was followed four years by later A Little Bit More, with the album of the same name becoming their most successful UK release. In 1979 the band reached the peak of its success with iconic single When You're in Love with a Beautiful Woman, which topped the UK chart for three weeks.

More hits included Better Love Next Time and Sexy Eyes, before the band split in 1985.

Since then Locorriere has released three solo albums, all since 2000, as well as a DVD and a live album. He has also written songs that have been recorded by artists including Bob Dylan, Jerry Lee Lewis, Willie Nelson and Olivia Newton-John.

Tickets for Dennis Locorriere – Alone Again are £20. He appears at the Lichfield Garrick on Saturday May 7 and tickets can be booked by calling 01543 412121.

Visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com to order online.

Performing Arts Centre puts on summer concert

CANNOCK Performing Arts Centre present their summer concert at the Prince of Wales Theatre on June 25.

Starting at 1pm, the event showcases the talents of the String Orchestra, String Ensemble, Wind Band, Big Band, Kids Chorus and Brass and Wind Ensembles.

The Arts Centre is run by Staffordshire Performing Arts, which offers ensemble opportunities to pupils in and around Cannock.

Their activities are designed to give pupils the opportunity to perform and develop their skills with other pupils from nearby schools in weekly rehearsals, concerts and tours.

More information on the centre is available at www.staffordshire.gov.uk/spa

Tickets cost £4 for adults and £2 for concessions and are available by calling the box office on 01543 578762.

C'Mon and relive rock 'n' roll days

ALL the greatest music starts of the 1950s and 60s are brought back to life when C'mon Everybody comes to the Cannock Prince of Wales Theatre.

Audiences are invited to relive the best-loved hits of Eddie Cochran, Buddy Holly, Brenda Lee, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Connie Francis, Duane Eddy, Bill Haley and more.

It is designed to be a nostalgic trip back in time to the greatest era of rock 'n' roll and enjoy top class tributes performed by high quality musicians, including Chris Fender Black.

Tickets for C'mon Everybody, which is at the Prince of Wales on Saturday July 23, are £14 for adults and £12 for concessions.

To book call the box office on 01543 578762.

HATTIE

BBC2, 9.45pm

Hattie Jacques. The well-worn phrase "larger than life" springs to mind whenever she's mentioned – as well as the infamous Carry On series of films. In fact, many people will know her only for the roles she played in those movies, but as this drama – originally broadcast on BBC Four in January – proves, there was an awful lot more than that to the actress, who died just over 30 years ago. She usually played "mumsy" characters, yet in real life left her husband, future Dad's Army star John Le Mesurier, for a younger man. It's this period of her life that forms the basis of this drama. Ruth Jones is brilliantly cast in the title role alongside Robert Bathurst, Aiden Turner and Jeany Spark.

LORD SUGAR TACKLES FOOTBALL

BBC2, 9pm
Anybody with an income of £2billion a year should be laughing all the way to the bank. That's the kind of figures English Premier League clubs are reputedly pulling in every year thanks to TV, match-day and sponsorship revenue – so why are so many of them up to their stadium rooftops in debt? Lord Sugar aims to find out in what should be an eye-opening documentary. While investigating the financial problems facing football, he interviews bosses, owners, agents and players to ask what has gone wrong – and what can be done to solve the issues he raises.

Russell Watson, Symphony Hall, Birmingham

A PACKED Symphony Hall erupted into hero worship for Russell Watson as 'The People's Tenor' was given a standing ovation before even singing a note.

In his own words, the welcome he received gave him goosebumps. Watson skipped and danced onto the stage, looking fit and well, with no hint of the health problems that have dogged him recently. Classics from some of his earlier albums, along with numbers from his most recent release, La Voce, were all delivered with incredible energy, drama and passion.

Backed by an incredible 40-piece orchestra and wonderful singers, 'The Voice' opened with Somewhere from West Side Story and went on to present a good mixture of arias, along with covers of popular songs.

Nessun Dorma was breathtaking while Mary Jess, winner of China's version of the X Factor joined him for songs from the Phantom of the Opera. Jerusalem and Land Of Hope And Glory had the entire audience on their feet with some waving flags. Coming down from the stage, singing Volare, he mingled with the fans shaking their hands and they in return showered him with gifts.

Solid Silver 60s Show, Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton

IT was the silver haired teenagers' night to party at the Grand Theatre for The Solid Silver 60s show. Aching joints were stretched to the limit as the audience stood and clapped along to the songs that reminded them of their youth. Non-stop hits of the decade were played by original groups that have matured just like those of us in the crowd.

Vanity Fair's Hi Ho Silver Lining, followed by Early in the Morning and Hitching a Ride started the party atmosphere. Wayne Fontana in his white cowboy hat and long white hair was greeted with cheers for Om Om Om, Game of Love and Pamela. Blues/Soul singer Chris Farlowe mesmerised the audience with Unchain My Heart, Handbags and Gladrags and Out of Time, while Dave Berry appeared behind the curtain showing his trademark white gloved hand. His songs included Little Things, Momma and the sensational Crying Game.

Terry Sylvester, formerly of The Hollies, sang their hits Just One Look and He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother.

The Mersey Beats' Wishing and Hoping, Sorrow and renditions of The Everly Brothers hits went down a storm. Sadly the night came to an end far too quickly but a good time was had by all.

Haunting Julia, Lichfield Garrick Studio

THE Garrick Studio provides the perfect venue for this haunting tale of musical prodigy Julia Lukin who died 12 years previously, but whose grief-stricken dad is still struggling to come to terms.

The Rep production was first shown at the Lichfield venue back in October, but has made a welcome return for 13 shows ahead of a run at London's Riverside Studios.

Christopher Timothy heads the three-man cast as Julia's dad Joe, still torn over his genius daughter's apparent suicide and looking for answers.

Dominic Hecht is Julia's ex-boyfriend Joe, while Brendan O'Callaghan makes up the cast as former landlord/psychic Ken Chase.

In the intimate studio surroundings, the audience is never far away from the action in what is a gripping suspense. Written by Alan Ayckbourn primarily as a ghost story, the dialogue throughout has the audience on the edge of their seats, leading to a dramatic finale, though there are comedy moments in there too.

Directed by Andrew Hall - currently appearing in Coronation Street - Haunting Julia runs at the Garrick Studio until next Saturday, May 14.

MARK SHIPP

Macbeth, Royal Shakespeare Theatre

DIRECTOR Michael Boyd's version of Macbeth is a bloody exploration of evil, ambition and guilt with a powerful central performance from Jonathan Slinger as the selfish tyrant.

This first production in the transformed Royal Shakespeare Theatre at Stratford-upon-Avon makes full use of the 'thrust' stage, on three sides surrounded by the audience, which is a larger version of the gallery Courtyard Theatre which was the Royal Shakespeare Company's home in recent years.

Actors enter from all angles, dangling from the ceiling, erupting from under the stage, running through the audience, or via smashed stained glass windows in Tom Piper's impressive ruined, cannon-blasted church set, where piles of debris smoulder and religious icons have been defaced. It suggests a time of turmoil and danger.

The distant thuds of explosive-like drums and the minimal notes from the trio of cellists provide a menacing soundscape and the pseudo-Elizabethan and leather costumes are effective.

Enter Macbeth, victor in the Scottish civil wars, who takes a supernatural prophecy as his cue to murder his king and claim the crown for himself, after the encouragement of his wife.

Not that Slinger's Macbeth needed much encouragement.

He is a smiling devil whose doubts and brief regrets are more to do with cowardice than human kindness or empathy. His wife knows this and it is she who is driven insane by guilt. Aislinn McGuckin as Lady Macbeth gives a harrowing 'out damned spot' scene.

Slinger spits out Shakespeare's lines with clarity and total conviction as the murdering tyrant, surely related to his memorable Richard III performed at Stratford a few years ago.

Youngsters take a central role. The witches, the Weird Sisters, become instead the Weird Children, and make their first appearance hanging from the ceiling like corpses on a gallows as they sing their prophecies to Macbeth and Banquo. The effect is very eerie and the audience later learn exactly who these ghostly children are.

Excellent support comes from the brawny tough guy Macduff of Aidan Kelly and Caroline Martin as the bitter Lady Macduff. Scott Handy radiates sorrow as Ross, the appalled witness to Macbeth's excess, and Howard Charles is gently impressive as the mild Malcolm, son of the murdered King Duncan, who finds enough steel in himself to take on Macbeth.

This is a production brimming with ideas, of which some work and some don't. Jamie Beamish's firework antics, as Seyton the gatekeeper, are baffling. Also, a scene with a multitude of dangling dolls to represent Banquo's heirs looks more Cabbage Patch than voodoo vision.

But the banquet scene is a triumph. Steve Toussaint's very physical ghost of the powerful dreadlocked Banquo comes crashing through a door to reduce Macbeth to a gibbering wreck.

This is a play in which the dead will not lie down. Then the scene is repeated without the ghost to show just how demented Macbeth must seem to his guests.

Be warned, the scene in which the throats of Macduff's children are slit as their watching mother is throttled is horrifying, but such an atrocity should be seen as horrifying.

Slinger's Macbeth seems to tire of his own malicious, duplicitous nature, musing upon death from his perch atop a ladder thrust out of the stage as his enemies close in.

In a world where smiling tyrants still cling to power via assassination and massacre, Macbeth remains relevant and fresh, and will remain so as long as men fall prey to 'vaulting ambition'.

Macbeth continues at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre until October 6.

LEON BURAKOWSKI

Fantastic Mr Fox the opera, Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton

ENGLISH Touring Opera aims to encourage a young audience to experience opera with this adaptation of Roald Dahl's farmyard tale, first performed in California in 1998. A barely half full theatre for this one nighter suggests they have some way to go in achieving this.

However, 20 local youngsters had their first experience of appearing in an opera with children from Wolverhampton's East Park Junior and Woden Primary schools playing fox cubs and trees.

The witty libretto by Donald Sturrock and Tobias Picker's music, a mix of bucolic Vaughan Williams-like incidental music and operatic pastiche, deserved a bigger audience.

It was good to have an orchestra in the Grand's pit, though they sometimes overpowered the vocals meaning lyrics were lost, despite selective surtitles shown on TV screens in the theatre's boxes.

Nicholas Merryweather was a swaggering Mr Fox complete with Rod Stewart-esque 70s hairstyle. Impressive vocal performances came from Miriam Sharrad's Mrs Fox, Welsh soprano Catrine Kirkman's lonely Miss Hedgehog, Carlyl Hughes' prancing Rita Rat and mezzo soprano Fiona Kimm as the Valkyrie-like digging machine Agnes.

But there was a feeling of anti-climax as the story seemed to fizzle out. It was Mediocre Mr Fox.

LEON BURAKOWSKI

Fantastic Mr Fox at the Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton

Katie Melua, Symphony Hall, Birmingham

THE little lady in black showed she is a performer of enormous talent and contrast, switching seamlessly between rock chick, torch singer and playful songstress. Appearing first as a disembodied voice with her hit Closest Thing To Crazy the crystal clear tone of the Georgian singer sliced across the hall until it finally split the curtain to reveal the star looking both sexy and the innocent, girl next door.

Katie extolled the pain of love through tracks like If You Were A Sailboat, the dark, slightly sinister I'd Love To Kill You - a track from latest album The House - The One I Love Is Gone and Call Off The Search.

This contrasted with her rock/blues chick side which came through on her cover of Canned Heat's Going Up The Country and God On Drums, Devil On The Bass. To further demonstrate her versatility she did a solo, soulful rendition of Lilac Wine, made famous by Elkie Brooks.

Katie let her more playful side take stage with Tiny Alien and Red Balloons, accompanied by videos and graphics projected onto the back screen. She kept her biggest hit, Nine Millions Bicycles, for the encore after an appreciative audience refused to budge until Miss Melua came back on stage. She finally said goodbye with the hauntingly sung I Cried For You.

THE National Collection of hardy ferns is based at Sizergh Castle, near Kendal. This imposing building is an ideal backdrop for the ferns.

It is good to see the lush plumes coming out again following one of the coldest winters in living memory.

The collection is set against the north side of a wall in the castle grounds, all labelled and easy to identify. Because they are deciduous plants, many varieties are only just coming up now, recovering from a dormant winter state.

In the rockery, some of the established plants are getting ready for the season. The royal fern (osmunda) has formed huge masses here. These will be really grand when they have fully formed their fronds. The shuttlecock ferns have made big clumps too, surrounded by geraniums, which make a contrast with their rounded shape and differently patterned leaves. They almost look ready to be used in a game of badminton.

Ferns are quite different to most plants, in that they are all green. They do not have flowers, but multiply with spores, which grow on the backs of the fronds, in patterns.

Moisture

The adiantums are delicate ferns, with tiny fronds that look very pretty. There are several types, which contrast with each other.

Many people plant ferns in a "stumpery", or use old stumps of wood, possibly gathered from a beach, so that they look suitably ancient.

Some ferns like to be kept damp, so prefer to grow in dappled shade, where they can keep the moisture, but others will grow in full sun.

There are many flowers which will mix well with ferns, and like the same kind of conditions. Trilliums are beautiful flowers which are ideal companions for them, and will grow well in the same sort of soils.

Many early spring bulbs also like the same kind of surroundings, and will make useful companions where the ferns are coming up after the winter rest.

The Victorians, who really loved their ferns, had hundreds of different varieties which they had noticed and then carefully kept.

My whiteside formed a double frond, which is probably a new type. Perhaps I could name it, and claim that it is a new variety?

Register early plea on FirstBuy scheme

First time buyers wanting to take advantage of the Government's FirstBuy initiative to get a foothold on the property ladder are being advised to register their interest in the new loan equity scheme now to avoid disappointment

FIRST time buyers wanting to take advantage of the Government's FirstBuy initiative to get a foothold on the property ladder are being advised to register their interest in the new loan equity scheme now to avoid disappointment.

Persimmon Homes has launched a registration page on its website - www.persimmonhomes.com/firstbuy - prior to the announcement of the allocation of applicable FirstBuy plots in June, due to the unprecedented demand from first time buyers already looking for support, such as shared equity, to enter the property market.

FirstBuy, which was announced in the Budget on 23rd March, is aimed at helping first time buyers onto the property ladder with a smaller mortgage deposit. It is similar to the previous Government's HomeBuy Direct Scheme, of which Persimmon Homes had the largest allocation (20 per cent) of all applicable plots in the country, assisting over 2,000 purchasers to buy their first home.

Anita Williams, sales and marketing director for Persimmon Homes West Midlands, said: "We recognise just how important first time buyers are in sustaining the property market and welcomed the announcement of the FirstBuy loan equity scheme."

"There will however only be a set allocation of plots that will be able to be bought through the scheme and, once these are gone, we are, at this stage, unsure whether any additional plots will be made available. "It is therefore extremely important for people to mark their interest in the scheme prior to the specific allocations being announced to ensure that, in June, they are at the top of the list to benefit from the support."

For buyers that do not meet the requirements of FirstBuy, which is expected to help 10,000 families get onto the property ladder, Persimmon Homes also offers its own Shared Equity Scheme and homes that can be bought through the Kickstart II initiative.

GARDENING

Enjoy salad days, but it's vital to plan ahead

NO need for the shops. . . just step out into the back garden and pick the fruit or vegetables you need for your meal. It doesn't any fresher than that!

Go back to the days when more people grew their own and didn't rely on pre-packaged salads at the supermarket. But to get a regular crop you have to plan ahead.

Even if space is limited you can still grow your own, on a patio or balcony or with gro-bags. Tomatoes, lettuces and potatoes grow just as well in a city setting as a country garden with the proper care.

Follow this monthly guide and you should have a constant supply of fresh fruit and veg.

MAY

- Plant out young plants raised indoors or in the greenhouse.
- Continue with the two-week planting programme.
- Feed tomato plants with Tomorite.
- Ensure all areas are well watered.
- Plant vegetables such as winter cabbage for winter harvesting.

JUNE

- Control weeds by hoeing and using a relevant weed killer if necessary.
- Stake and support larger plants such as tomatoes, peppers and beans.
- Feed plants regularly with Miracle-Gro Grow Your Own Plant Food or Liquid Plant Food.
- Protect plants from slug and snail damage.
- Break up any compacted soil to allow water and air to penetrate to the plant roots.

JULY

- Continue to plant out beetroot, carrots, peas, lettuce and radishes for late crops.
- Continue to feed all plants.
- Many vegetables and salad plants will be ready to start harvesting and eating at this time.
- Pay particular attention to watering as your plants increase in size.

AUGUST

- Control weeds by hoeing or using a suitable weed killer.
- Keep a close watch for pests and insects, particularly on the underside of leaves.
- This is the time to enjoy all of your work as most plants can be harvested this month.
- Once plants are harvested and the ground is empty, refresh the ground by digging in Levington Farnyard Manure or Miracle-Gro Grow Your own compost.

SEPTEMBER

- Continue to harvest the last of your beans and peas.
- Maincrop potatoes can stay in the ground to bulk or can be harvested now. Make sure that you harvest all potatoes by the end of this month and keep a careful eye to avoid pests.

Plant well and you could have an endless supply of healthy salad ingredients

- Be sure to harvest any remaining crops by the first frosts.
- Dig in well rotted manure or Levington Farnyard Manure to improve soil structure.

Urban gardeners don't have to miss out as there are gro-bags and planters but the key is to use quality compost that's been specifically designed to grow fruit and vegetables.

Most vegetables are sun lovers and require plenty of light and warmth to produce the best crops. If the plot is open and exposed to cold winds, some form of windbreak may be required – a fence, wall or dwarf hedge would be adequate.

A south facing patio is the ideal spot for growing many vegetables in gro-bags and planters. It is advisable to move the crops. By moving the crop each year you stop soil-borne pests that are fairly specific to that crop attacking the next that you plant.

Skoda serves up fuel consumption winner

By Neil Ward

It is an indisputable fact that fuel prices are going to increase. Successive governments have used the tax on fuel, which now constitutes nearly 80 per cent of the cost, as a quick and easy way to generate revenue in order to avoid having to be creative and possibly unpopular tax policies, God forbid!

There is another school of thought that promotes removing cars completely from our roads and switching to other forms of transport such as the bicycle and public transport, (great if you live in London).

Now I grant you that my overall level of fitness would improve dramatically if I used a bicycle to get around.

However, it is not practical for long distances unless you are the talented Lance Armstrong. As for public transport, where I live you are more likely to spot a mythical unicorn than see a local bus on a regular basis. In the face of this paralysis by central government to help ease transport costs and the green lobby's unrealistic wish to get us all travelling by bicycle or public transport what can one do?

As much as I like driving sports cars and other vehicles that are not particularly fuel-efficient in reality this is a small part of my overall driving.

Fuel efficiency, therefore, seems to be the way to go; oh and by the way, I don't want a small town car.

Not a tall order then? Well actually, no it isn't, as the people at Skoda think they have come up with the answer; the Greenline range.

Difference

I had on the test the excellent Octavia. The VRS version is in my humble opinion one of the best sports cars in its category; however, enough of that.

What is the difference between this and the others in the range? Well first off there is a stop start function fitted.

If you have never used one of these before it takes a little time to get used to the sensation of the engine stopping when you are stationary and then starting up when you put the clutch pedal down.

However, it is an excellent system and compared to others that I have tried did not have any quirks and I quickly became so used to it that I did not notice it working.

The Greenline also has an energy recovery system. Now if you are an F1 fan you may be thinking this is the KERS system and a boost button is fitted to the steering wheel.

Sadly no, but the system in the Skoda is none the less impressive as it provides a more efficient way of generating electricity and reduces load on the engine which saves on CO2 emissions by 2-4 g/km.

Another device fitted is the gear recommendation system, which advises you to change up or down to achieve optimum speed with reduced fuel consumption.

Normally I class these things on the 'which idiot thought this was a good idea' pile.

However, in fairness to Skoda I did persevere with the system and it was surprising how much torque the engine delivered.

Genuinely my driving habits did change and the feature did not distract me from the road.

Another clever way that the Greenline achieves fuel efficiency is by making small aerodynamic changes, using smaller lighter alloy wheels with low rolling resistance tyres and slightly lowering the suspension, which does not compromise the ride quality of the car.

So what does this all add up to? How about nearly 75mpg?! I can confirm that even with lead foot Ward driving this was my fuel consumption.

Added to this the usual comfort and road holding one expects of a Skoda has not been compromised.

As with all things in life, nothing is for free and the Skoda is no exception as it does cost more than other cars in the range.

That said, with the fuel consumption I am sure that the payback period for this extra cost will be short.

My only other irritation is the lack of blue-tooth as it is an optional extra.

If you only knew the amount of time I wasted trying to get it to work because the button was fitted!

Winner

Prices start at £14,865 for the 'non' green Octavias and £17,705 for the ones which are even more environmentally friendly.

Don't let that price difference of getting on for £3,000 put you off – with fuel prices as they are you will soon make up that difference and be greener to boot.

In conclusion, being green and environmentally conscious does not mean that you have to drive a tiny little town car or compromise on other luxuries such as size or drive quality; Skoda has a real winner on its hands.

TO CELEBRATE its new ownership, iconic British sports car marque Caterham Cars will build a limited run of Team Lotus Special Edition Sevens.

Just 25 of the Team Lotus upgrade packages, which can be applied to any variant up to the top-of-the-range 263bhp, 150mph Superlight R500, will be built in the UK, with the same number allocated to the company's thriving export markets.

For an additional £3,000 over the price of your chosen car, the Sevens will be specially liveried in the famous green and yellow colours of Lotus and will come with bespoke Team Lotus additions. Included in the upgrade package will be an invitation to a customised tour of the Team Lotus F1 factory in Hingham, Norfolk.

As custodians of Colin Chapman's original 50s concept for the Seven since 1973, Caterham Cars' current product range remains true to Chapman's philosophy of lightweight, minimalist sports cars.

Outside, the cars will be coated in a Team Lotus-inspired livery and the theme continues in the cockpit, with a plaque carrying the signatures of Team Lotus F1 drivers, Jarno Trulli and Heikki Kovalainen.

Owners will also receive a Seven history book signed by chief designer, Mike Gascoyne.

Caterham managing director, Ansar Ali, said: "Caterham Cars is starting an exciting and hugely important chapter, so it's entirely fitting that we celebrate our opportunity to take Colin Chapman's 'less is more' philosophy global, with this special car."

"Owners of the Special Edition Sevens will have not only a fabulous British sports car, but a genuine piece of automotive history in their garage."

The current range of Caterham Seven products starts with the Caterham Classic, at £13,650.

For want of a wheel-nut, no car need be lost, thanks to a stockpile of Ford spares and components

Search is over – parts firm buys big Ford spares stock

OWNERS of the original Ford Focus RS who are searching for genuine spares now have access to around £1million worth in a single warehouse.

The National Clearance Centre, operated by Salisbury-based Foray Motor Group, holds a vast stock of obscure and slow-moving parts for older Ford cars, vans, and commercials with some dating back to the 1980s.

The company has just bought all the remaining Mk 1 Focus RS spares previously held by Ford in the UK.

Fast wearing brake components, steering racks, plus rear springs, exhaust manifolds, body quarter panels, differentials and many more parts are now safely stored for supply to individual owners and trade customers keen to keep the popular RS model fettle and offering peak performance.

"The BS has a very distinct following and the limited number made by Ford means that they are keenly sought in the used market," explained Howard Jenkins, aftersales director for Foray, which operates 10 Ford dealerships in the west of England.

"Owners will want to use original Ford parts wherever possible to ensure the originality of their cars and we pioneered the online sale of parts across the world through our NCC several years ago.

Experienced

"We have a very experienced online sales team who can dispatch parts from our total of £10million of Ford stock swiftly to anywhere in the world. If it's an RS or any obscure Ford part people want, our parts department is the first place to start a search."

The NCC can be located at <http://www.fordpart-suk.com> Foray also has its own eBay store: stores.ebay.co.uk/nationalclearancecentre

The Sevens will adopt the famous green and yellow Lotus livery

It's bronzed and beautiful

A SIGNIFICANTLY revised MiTo range will shortly become available through Alfa Romeo's 52-strong UK dealer network.

The Italian sporting car manufacturer has just released details of the new range - all of which are designed to make owning an Alfa easier and more attractive than ever, with lower entry prices combined with higher standard specifications, and a new congestion-busting sub-100g/km CO2 version.

The MiTo sports compact range has been streamlined from 17 versions to nine, with both Turismo and Lusso trim levels being replaced with the Sprint; entry level versions are now known as Progression, and Distinctive and Quadrifoglio Verde versions replace Veloce and Cloverleaf.

Additional

Prices have been reduced across the range, and now start at £12,250 OTR for the entry level 1.4 8v Progression, rising to £17,955 OTR for the 1.4 TB MultiAir 170bhp Quadrifoglio Verde.

In terms of enhanced specification, Distinctive (formerly Veloce) and Quadrifoglio Verde (Cloverleaf) are both enriched with additional equipment, including Cruise Control, Sports pedals and rear parking sensors.

Three new engines become available: 1.4 8v 78bhp (available in Progression and Sprint, replacing the 1.4 16v 95bhp unit) for lower emissions, superior MPG and Start&Stop as standard; 1.4 MultiAir 105bhp (available with Sprint or Distinctive trims) for superior power, torque and MPG (compared to the 1.4 16v 95bhp engine); and the new congestion charge/tax busting 1.3 JTDM-2 (Sprint only), replacing the 1.3 16v 95bhp unit which produces a spritely 85bhp and just 95g/km of CO2, which means free travel in the congestion charge zone, together with free road tax and first registration fee. Business users can also claim 100 per cent capital allowance in the first year of ownership.

Finally, the Alfa MiTo will become available in Metal Bronze, a colour entirely new to the Alfa range, having been previewed at this year's Geneva Motor Show.

On Progression and Sprint versions, it can also be chosen with new Sprint Bronze upholstery.

Prices have been cut across the MiTo range

Chevrolet snatches top spot in the car reliability stakes

Durable and reliable: Chevrolet is a winner by industry standards

VALUE-BRAND Chevrolet has topped a survey of car reliability, according to new research.

Warranty Direct's Reliability Index analyses both the frequency of failure and also the cost of repair to customers' cars, and currently Chevrolet is leading the pack with a score of just 20.00 – the lower the score, the better the reliability and lower the cost. Honda's score stands at 30.00.

Chevrolet also tops the charts for repair costs – at £195.14 per repair claim, Chevrolet beats its nearest rival, Fiat, by more than £40.

To make it a hat-trick, Chevrolet also claims the lowest time off the road in terms of repairs, with an average of 1.41 days per claim to repair. Second-placed Suzuki's score is 1.67.

Chevrolet is a keen supporter and fully subscribed member of MotorCodes, the UK car industry's self-regulating commitment to fair practice and good customer service.

Package

It was also the first brand to offer a fully comprehensive five-year aftercare package to its customers.

The Five-Year Promise, introduced in 2010, not only offers a warranty, but also roadside assistance, servicing, MoT insurance and vehicle health checks over the period.

Proof, if it were needed, that Chevrolet believes in its cars' dependability.

Warranty Direct's managing director Duncan McClure-Fisher said: "Honda has held the top spot in our overall manufacturer's reliability table for many months.

"So for Chevrolet to knock them off their perch is a major coup.

"You have to bear in mind that we do not hold as many policies on Chevrolets as Honda models.

"But, nevertheless, the data we do have clearly shows that Chevrolets are trustworthy vehicles."

Škoda Solutions PCP representative finance example based on 10,000 miles per annum

I HAVE been privileged for more years than I care to remember to be in a position to test numerous different types of vehicles.

And one lesson that I have learned over a period of time is that if my wife uses or volunteers to drive the particular test vehicle then it is a good one.

This is what happened with the arrival of Mazda's 5; she borrowed it to take a girl friend to play golf.

Then a long weekend break at Hay-on-Wye again saw her volunteer to drive.

This told me that the Mazda 5 would be a joy to own and drive - and such was the case.

The Mazda 5 is a multi-activity vehicle, designated a MAV - a new one on me - that can seat seven quite easily.

Mazda has suggested that it drives like a dream and I really can't disagree. The packaging of this vehicle is extremely good; it has the seven seats but huge functionality to go with them.

The rear side doors slide back to allow easy access but also mean narrow car park spaces are useable. This is also a huge bonus when loading or gaining access if you have mobility issues.

The design team has done a superb job in this vehicle.

The design shows strong Mazda DNA with the V-section bonnet and the five-pointed grille shouting the name of the manufacturer.

Specifications are very high and Mazda has continued with its chosen TS, TS2 and Sport derivatives.

I like the body-line; it has a nice, high roofline which gives an immediate impression of the roomy and spacious interior.

The rear sliding doors have a huge 70cms of opening space; this gives superb access to the conventional back row seats and the third one, too.

One feature where Mazda has shown other manufacturers how to do it is one-lever operation to lower the seat.

The second row of seats is multi-adjustable and the very rear section is very strong and has reinforcing in the roof so that in the event of a rear accident shunt the vehicle is safe.

I like the fact that the rear seats have integrated head restraints but even more I admire the fold-flat system.

With the last row of seats folded it is possible to place a mat over the lot and have a huge boot area. So often with multi-seated vehicles the last rows of seats which are rarely used occupy considerable luggage space.

The Mazda 5 has unique seating arrangements and this really does benefit a family.

The front seats are slightly lower than the normal rear ones which in turn are slightly lower than the very back row.

The second row has two seats plus an extra foldaway one, making it possible to walk from the very back through to the second row - a neat feature.

Mazda 5's are available with a choice of three power trains, a 1.6-litre diesel and two petrols in the form of a 1.8-litre and a two-litre.

My particular test vehicle was the two-litre Sport which produces 150bhp and has a 159g/km CO2 emission which puts it into tax band G costing £155 per year.

It is capable of 120mph and has a suggested combined figure of 40.9mpg on the fuel cycle. The computer told me that we were achieving 33mpg, well below the official figure.

The six-speed gearbox was an absolute delight. For once we had a vehicle with fifth and sixth gears useable in and around town, but the hills of Herefordshire meant work in second and third.

Mazda has also equipped the vehicle with a stop and go system. This takes a little bit of getting used to as when you come to a halt and put the vehicle in to neutral the engine cuts out.

It starts again as soon as you depress the clutch pedal and is, of course, a feature when it comes to economy.

The new Mazda 5 is a fine handling family car with a high level of driver appeal.

Due to the dynamics and its ability to carry seven people in comfort with a bit of luggage, I think Mazda will continue to find a happy buying public.

Prices for the new Mazda 5 start at £18,165 for a 1.8-litre TS and top out at £21,995 for the Sport diesel.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer.
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with its Mother.
2. Do not attempt to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News
Association publication take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Host club praised as Chase win the double

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

CHASE ATHLETIC U-12 JUNIORS 2 RUGELEY RANGERS 0

CHASE Athletic under-12s scooped the double when they lifted the Lichfield & District Recreational League Shield – but their boss reserved praise for the match hosts, Brocton FC.

With the game against Rugeley Rangers being brought forward from May 8, it meant the original venue at Burntwood Leisure Centre was unavailable.

With an alternative ground being sought, Brocton also stepped in to help, while Chasetown FC also offered use of their Scholars ground.

Goals in each half from Kai Lycett and Connell Jevons gave the Division One winners a 2-0 victory over the league runners-up.

Boss Stuart Haddaway was pleased with his side's success, but was also full of praise for Brocton.

e said: "It's a lovely set up and the lads had a great time in the build up to the game, being able to use the changing rooms and the facilities.

"The playing surface was excellent and it gave the lads a real cup final feel. We are grateful to Brocton FC for allowing the two teams to use the facilities. It's good to know that there are teams like them – and Chasetown – that are willing to help out children's football."

Terry Homer, of Brocton FC, said: "We do like to let others see our ground so we were happy to help out."

CHASSETOWN 1

HEDNESFORD TOWN HARRIERS U-11 3

HARRIERS came into this game as underdogs, but made most of the early running. Chasetown, however, struck first with a loose ball that Harriers failed to deal with three yards out.

Harriers drew level thanks to a Joel

Church Farm Academy in England kit to celebrate the Royal wedding

Caswell corner that was headed in by Brandon Parker. The same player added a free-kick as Harriers finished the half in front and the man of the match went on to score a well-deserved hat-trick from the spot to secure the points.

Hednesford Town under-13s are looking for players for a new team to start the 2011/12 season. Players in all positions are being sought.

Those interested have to be in Year 8 in September. Call Jason on 07974101537.

RUGELEY RANGERS U-9S 2

CANNOCK TOWN JUNIORS 1

Rugeley snatched the league title from their opponents in the last game of the season.

The game was settled by a brace from Charlie Greensill. Rangers topped the table with the most goals scored and the fewest conceded.

LICHFIELD VIKINGS 3 CHURCH FARM U-9 3

Church Farm finished their season on a positive note after coming back from a two-goal deficit in the second half to grab a well deserved draw. Scorers were Josh McHale, Man of the Match Callum Smith and Charlie Jennings.

Meanwhile, Church Farm FC Academy in Burntwood celebrated the Royal wedding by dressing up in England kit to mark the occasion at their Friday training session.

PELSALL 1 CANNOCK TOWN U-14S 7

Champions Cannock Town produced a great all round team performance as they ran out 7-1 winners.

Top striker Niall Preece added another four goals to make it 60 for the season. Further goals came from Callum Fowler and cracking efforts from Reid Elsmore and Alex Hunt completed the scoring.

The manager's Player of the Match went to Michael Lycett. Parents' Player of the match went to Niall Preece.

RUGELEY Rangers Lions u-11s are looking to strengthen their squad in preparation for next season. Training is open to any child currently in year 5.

Anyone interested please call either Wayne Moriboy on 07739 039899 or Monique McPeake on 07989 744375 for more details.

CANNOCK TOWN u-11s Juniors have just finished their best ever season and are seeking new players for the 2011/2012 season to strengthen its current squad.

Players needed will be currently in Year 6. For more information, contact Jane Pearson on 07969 110090.

Maiden ton for Shafiq as seconds stay top of pile

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (187) LOST TO ALDRIDGE (233-7) BY 46 RUNS

PENKRIDGE 1st XI slipped to their first defeat of the 2011 campaign when they travelled to Aldridge last Saturday (April 23).

The home team were asked to bat first and steadily accumulated runs throughout their innings based around the efforts of James Lee (55), James Johnson (89) and Ross Doolan (32).

Penkridge were guilty of dropping catches again which hampered the efforts of their bowling attack, and only Ian Brown (4-57) registered any success as Aldridge closed their innings on 233-7.

Penkridge never really threatened to overhaul their target with wickets lost at crucial times.

A pedestrian 77 from Salim Malik was the highlight of other notable contributions from Matt Jones (28) and Richard James (23), but two basic run outs, including one of the last ball of the game ultimately handed victory to Aldridge as Penkridge were bowled out for 187.

PENKRIDGE 2ND XI (303-5 DEC) BEAT ALDRIDGE (138) BY 165 RUNS

The second XI dominated their game against the same opposition to maintain their place at the top of Division 1A. Simon Parnaby (130) continued to push his claims for a 1st XI slot with a second successive century and Mohammed Shafiq (103 not out) plundered his maiden ton as Penkridge piled on 303-5 dec.

Tim Dredge (3-35) then blasted out the top of the Aldridge batting order with a hostile opening spell, and his replacement Jon Price ran through the rest of the Aldridge line up, finishing with 6-28 in 6.4 overs, as the visitors were bowled out for 138 in the 24th over.

CRICKET

PENKRIDGE 3RD XI (152) LOST TO BREWOOD (153-7) BY THREE WICKETS

The 3rd XI also struggled on Saturday against a strong Brewood side.

Khalid Sadiq (25) was the top Penkridge scorer as the hosts were skittled out for 152, with Lucas Evans claiming 5-29.

Brewood made use of some extra overs resulting from Penkridge not using their full allocation during their innings, reaching their target in the 54th over thanks to 36 from Andy Gubby and 39 not out from Rob Morgan despite the best efforts of Khalid Sadiq (3-40).

CANNOCK U15 SUNDAY COLTS (163-3) BEAT BREWOOD U-15 (160) BY 7 WICKETS

CANNOCK Colts began their 40 over East Shropshire League campaign with seven wicket win at Brewood.

Brewood won the toss and decided to bat and despite losing an early wicket made steady progress. Harry Taylor and Lucas Evans put on a partnership worth 80 runs before Taylor fell to the bowling of Dan Wood for 27.

A further two wickets for Wood saw him finish with 3-41.

The return of opening bowlers Jack Twigger and Dan Bowker saw the fall of further wickets with Twigger returning 4-21 and Bowker 2-34. Evans was run out in the final over having scored 96 and the Brewood innings closed on 160 all out.

Openers Dan Wood and James Caswell made a good start in reply with a partnership of 85 which never dropped below the required run rate. Wood was first to fall having scored 41 with Connor Shingler the new batsman. The score continued to move along steadily before two quick wickets, including Caswell for 32, saw Cannock reduced to 126-3 but despite this slight wobble Cannock's victory was secured in the 37th over with Connor Shingler not out 32 and Jack Twigger not out 25.

CANNOCK 3RDS (249-7) BEAT COSELEY 2NDS (97) BY 152 RUNS

Cannock's winning run continued with another comfortable win, this time against Coseley.

After being invited to bat first Cannock's batsmen struggled and after 25 overs were perilously placed at 85-5 with Dave Chapman's 36 the only meaningful contribution. The not out batsman Tom Bull was joined by Dan Wood and Cannock's recovery began.

A partnership of 75 followed before Bull was run out for 67. Dan Bowker joined Wood and another sizeable partnership followed, this time worth 82 before Wood fell for 48.

Bowker reached his half century in the final over and Cannock's innings closed on a sizeable 249-7.

The Coseley reply started slowly with Dan Bowker's six overs yielding only two runs.

Dan Wood took a wicket in his second over and while Coseley Captain Farmer tried to add some impetus to the innings, when he was out for 26 the innings crumbled to 97 all out with Wood the main tormentor returning figures of 7-38. Jack Twigger took 2-8.

Young Lucy nets her first carp

ANGLING – sponsored by Archline

BLACKFORDS Angling Club match held on Kingswood Lake proved to be hard going with the sunny and calm conditions.

It was won by Steve Preece who found a shoal of Bream in the four-to-five lb size group and managed to catch a winning weight of 48lb 5oz using worm and castor bait.

Second was Dave Morris with 21lb 9oz and third Trevor Hope with 13lb 9oz. Alan Carter had a 14lb 4oz carp while pleasure fishing.

Best fish from Fisherwick Lakes near Lichfield was a 26lb common carp caught by Nick Wright using a high viz pop up boilie. Bob Kingston had a grass carp just under 18lbs on floating bread and young Lucy Arnold caught her first carp, weighing in at 16lbs. In total 40 different carp were caught during the week. The trout lake continues to fish well with black, green and brown buzzers taking the lion's share of the fish. Regular visitor Ian Davidson had a 10 fish catch and Roy Westwood a nine-fish haul. Rod average for the week was 2.82.

Jubilee Angling Club had a match on the canal between Rod-baston and Otherton, winning weight was 5lb 7oz and the top three were only separated by 11 ounces.

The stretch is producing some good bags of roach and skimmers best baits are pinkies and squatts. Anyone interested in a season ticket should call Fred Bennett on 07983 969489. There are a very limited number of places available for a two-day salmon fly fishing course we are holding on the River Ribble in Lancashire on June 14/15. Any one interested, please call Vernon.

We now have season tickets available for Izak Walton, Stafford and Wolverhampton A.A. Fishery owners, if you would like a mention, please contact us and all you coarse, game and sea anglers out there... if you have an up to date "fishy story" to report please contact us with details and a picture and we will attempt to include it for you.

Contact Vernon at Archline Angling on 01922 411205, call in the store or email fish@archline-angling.co.uk

Part one of Belt Road four-timer quest completed

CANNOCK CHASE FOOTBALL LEAGUE by Tim Elsmore front of a crowd of 106. Broomhill Albion go through their second cup final of the season after knocking out Bar Sport in the Charity Cup – but only just.

Dave Hudson and Gavin Girvin twice put third division Broomhill in front but second division Bar Sport never gave up and gave them a game.

With just two minutes to go though Mick Evans scored a stunning 30 yard volley to seal the win and take them into the final on May 13.

Mary Rose pulled off a shock semi-final win over title favourites The Littleton by knocking them out 4-2.

This Sunday (May 8) is the turn of the Brereton Town Cup being played at Great Wyrley FC, Hazel Lane. Kick-off is 2pm and it is a repeat of last season's final, Belt Road against Rugeley Utd.

Scholars could now land the title after Challenge Cup win

BOLDMERE ST MICHAELS RESERVES 0 CHASSETOWN RESERVES 1

THEO Robinson was the goal hero as he gave Chasetown Reserves a huge title winning boost at the Trevor Brown Memorial Ground.

The young gun from nearby Steady, popped up on 12 minutes to intercept a weak back pass and slot home. It was the only goal of the evening as the Scholars bounced back from the previous weekend's defeat at Banbury.

With one league game remaining Mark Swann's boys are keeping the pressure on title challengers Quorn.

It was an evenly fought first half with both sides creating chances which included Ryan Ward's piledriver after nine minutes that nearly put the hosts ahead.

In reply, Chasetown pushed forward and the quick thinking of Robinson found the net, setting the Scholars in the driving seat.

CHASSETOWN RESERVES

Gavin Saunders almost doubled the lead after 20 minutes, going close with a header from a Jamie Hawkins corner.

Corey Currithers, back home for the Easter break from University was also looking dangerous and 54 minutes he latched onto a through ball from Dan Rock. Despite appearing to have taken it too far he shot from the angle, skimming the cross bar.

In the latter stages Boldmere made a spirited push for an equaliser but the Scholars hung on to secure the three points.

A home win against Gresley in the final game of the season will ensure the Scholars are crowned champions.

CHASSETOWN RESERVES 5 TIPTON TOWN RESERVES 1

Chasetown Reserves took advantage of playing the Challenge Trophy Final on home soil by slamming five past local rivals Tipton Town.

It was the second piece of silverware the Reserves have lifted this campaign and keeps Mark Swann's dream of winning the treble very much alive.

As the interval loomed, the Scholars broke the deadlock.

Drew Aiton's cross from the right of the penalty area was deflected into the path of Andy Westwood's well timed run and he scooped the ball home.

Eleven minutes into the second half Gavin Saunders won possession and sent Jones charging down the left. He entered to Aiton who was lurking on the 18 yard line and he calmly picked his spot and directed the ball into the net.

Chasetown were now dominant and a Westwood attempt was cleared off the line by the alert Kyle Morrain. On 58 minutes

Saunders received the ball from Currithers in the half and curled a low shot into the bottom left corner. Saunders shimmied, eased past his marker and floated a magnificent bending shot beyond Stevens' reach into the top right hand corner.

On 64 minutes Jonathan Gould's curling cross had the Town defence at loggerheads and they failed to notice prowling Westwood's presence as he headed home Chasetown's fourth.

Tipton substitute Tony Okemo gave Town a new lease of life and volleyed home superbly from the edge of the box on 77 minutes, but the inevitable fifth goal came for Chasetown on 83 minutes, as Westwood teed up Currithers to sidefoot into the empty net.

trial on April 10 and finished in a very respectable 1hr 51min 59sec.

Three club records were broken in one day on Friday April 22 with Scott Westwood breaking the club's 10-mile time trial record in 19 min 12 sec. The same rider also broke the team's 10-mile time trial record along with Phil Brown (20 min 46 sec) and Steve Wilkins (21 min 03 sec). Phil broke the club record for the veteran fastest 10-mile record with the record now standing at an unbreakable 8:48.

Ian Lewis is also flying at the moment and won a Warwickshire CC 10-mile time trial on the K38/10F with a time of 22 min 40 sec.

1,300 ENTRANTS ENJOY CITY'S HALF MARATHON

Philip Lowe, Nathan Charnington and Rob Hall with Heidi Brookes and Clare Whitehouse from Esporta

A FIELD of nearly 1,300 entrants took to the city's streets for the first ever Salts Techstep Lichfield Half-Marathon. Hundreds more turned out in force to cheer the athletes home from Stowe Field.

The runners were able to take in the fantastic spring weather and the sights of Lichfield including the cathedral, as well as the beautiful rural areas of Whittington and Fradley villages. The finish line was situated under the gaze of the magnificent three-spired cathedral as elite runners, committed club runners, first time half-marathoners and even fun run joggers and walkers, all enjoyed the inaugural event.

The event, organised by KP events, was sponsored by Salts Techstep who provided a specialist blister pit stop for any runners suffering problems en route.

This was repeated by their specialist team in the recovery area at the finish.

Peter Russell, Technical Director of Salts Techstep's education partner New Balance – one of the worlds leading makers of running shoes – was on hand to present the prizes to the first three men and women along with Adrian Priest, Senior Production Manager at Salts Techstep.

First home was Patrick Stuart from Bedford and County FC in a time of 1hr 16:07. He was followed by Westbury Harrier Rich Collinson in 1:16:56. Third was Mark Rogers from Wigan Phoenix 1:18:43.

First past the post for the women was Sarah Johnson, of Trentham AC, who finished 5th overall in a time of 1:19:33. In second place was Rebecca Harrison from Cheadle Running Club in 1:28:28, with Bournville Harrier Linda Howelin third in 1:29:39.

The Junior Mini Marathon was won by Billy Hicks, while the first girl home was Alice Mellor.

Myrtles end up in sixth

LICHFIELD RUGBY

CAMP HILL 38 LICHFIELD 21
LICHFIELD ran out of steam to finish sixth in the league.

The Myrtle Greens were penalised five points for failing to fulfil a rearranged fixture over the Easter holiday. A win here, even with the points deduction would have seen them finish fourth.

The Myrtles went into their final league game of the season with no less than eight players eligible to play Colts rugby in a much changed team.

John Hicks, who has been a great servant to the club, announced his retirement from league rugby before the game.

The city side also saw the return of favourite Simon Haber to the squad and so there was a real balance of youth and experience in the team.

Things started badly for Lichfield who lost Keifer Laxton after 10 minutes but this allowed Callum Turner to make a welcome return to first team rugby from his studies at Leeds.

In given Lichfield the lead with an expert piece of poaching to go over from well inside his own half, Neil Antcliffe adding the extras and Lichfield were 7-0 in front.

Antcliffe was controlling territory well and it wasn't until the 23rd minute that the home side got on the score board for a try wide out.

The rest of the half belonged to Lichfield with tries for Tom Adams and Charlie Milner both converted by Antcliffe and Lichfield had a healthy 21-5 lead going into the break.

Camp Hill controlled territory well and used the wind, slope and dip to their advantage forcing Lichfield deep into their own half time and again.

They scored tries in the 42nd, 50th and 65th minute to take a 24-21 lead.

Lichfield then began to get into gear and only some dubious refereeing at the set piece and desperate defence stopped a pushover try and tries for Greg Massey, Neil Antcliffe and Tom Adams.

However as Lichfield went looking for the win they left themselves open to the counter and two tries in the 79th and 80th minute gave the Camp Hill a flattering 38-21 victory.

This has been a good first season in Midlands 1 and players and coaches have learned some valuable lessons.

There is a real determination among the squad to build on this year's effort and take another step forward next season.

PITMEN'S SPOT-KICK WOE

Stewards try to stop a pitch invasion at the end of the shot-out

HEDNESFORD TOWN 2 SALISBURY CITY 2 AFTER EXTRA TIME (SALISBURY WIN 3-2 ON PENALTIES)

FOOTBALL can be a cruel game at the best of times but, as Danny Quinn saw his penalty saved by Tommy Smith to give Salisbury City promotion at the end of a classic play-off final, anyone would be hard pushed not to feel for Hednesford Town.

A superb run since the start of the year saw the Pitmen confident of securing an unlikely promotion against full-time opponents who had led the league by a country mile at Christmas.

In a cauldron of noise in front of a Keys Park crowd of 1,903, a strong crosswind and bouncy pitch did little to encourage attractive football and it was Salisbury who came closest in a tense opening half hour as Jamie Turley hit a superb volley against the bar from 12 yards out.

Hednesford had matched their opponents up until that point but

Hednesford miss out on promotion on penalties

the away side could have opened the scoring on 42 minutes as Jake Reid's header forced Dan Crane into an outstanding full stretch save and Darren Campion cleared Kayne McLaggon's rebound off the line.

On 63 minutes Keys Park erupted as the front two of Kyle Patterson and Nick Wellecome combined for Hednesford and the former latched onto a pass from Chris Clements to set up the latter to flick the ball into the roof of the net.

Hednesford assistant manager Larry Chambers was sent to the stands as tempered frayed but with just six minutes to go Matt Wright pounced and looped his shot over Crane to level.

With seconds to go of normal time Darren Campion hit a rasping shot which flew towards the top-corner but Smith made an astonishing save to deny Hednesford a dramatic late winner. Extra time was a nervy affair and in the 107th minute Keys Park again exploded as Clements floated in a deep free kick. Liam Francis won the flick-on and substitute Quinn edged the ball past Smith to restore the Pitmen's lead.

As home fans' fingernails took a battering, Clements came within the width of a post to securing promotion for the Pitmen as he skipped past four defenders and slid the ball against the foot of the upright. The ball bobbed clear and within three minutes Ben Adlesbury hit an unstoppable screamer to equalise at the death for Salisbury.

The dreaded penalty shoot-out was all that could separate the two teams and Wright scuffed his kick wide for Salisbury before Dunkley cruelly saw his shot hit the bar for the Pitmen.

The away side held their nerve and as Quinn's penalty was saved, Salisbury could celebrate promotion while the Hednesford faithful were left to forever curse the football god's as their team are now destined to spend another year at level seven of the non-league pyramid.

Smith hails 'machine'

HEDNESFORD TOWN 3 LEAMINGTON 1

PITMEN boss Rob Smith hailed his well-oiled Hednesford machine after an emphatic victory over Leamington moved them a step closer to back where they feel they belong.

Backed by the majority of a partisan home crowd of 1,504 on Thursday night (April 28), you sensed there was only ever going to be outcome as Hednesford notched their 17th win from their last 19 games.

It is a fine achievement for Smith who has blended a squad of promising youngsters and experienced heads into promotion challengers in his first season in charge.

"The players have been like a machine for us and we have just got to apply a little bit of something here and there because they know what is needed," said Smith.

Kyle Patterson gave Hednesford a dream start in the ninth minute. The former Albion striker showed great composure to round Leamington goalkeeper Tony Breeden and slot into an empty net after beating the offside trap.

HEDNESFORD TOWN FC

Hednesford were unable to build on their impressive start as the visitors levelled in the 43rd minute – Leamington skipper Richard Batchelor tapping home after Dan Crane had saved Liam Daly's header.

However, the visitors were only on level terms for a couple of minutes as a Chris Clements free-kick from the left was curled into the box and Hednesford captain Liam Francis powerfully headed home.

Hednesford grew in confidence as the game wore on and were rewarded with a goal fit to grace any stage.

Nick Wellecome laid the ball into the path of Clements and the young midfielder angled a low curling shot into the bottom-right corner of the net from just outside the box.

Disappointing end to a satisfactory season

HEATH HAYES 1 COALVILLE TOWN 4

HAYES went into this game hoping to do neighbours Tipton Town a huge favour by denying The Ravens the points necessary to wrestle the Midland Alliance title.

While having their fair share of chances the home side succumbed to the visitors' clinical finishing.

Baggott and Deakin both missed with early headers for the home side but sloppy defending allowed Craig Attwood to open the scoring for the visitors on 29 minutes.

Ashley Wells got another to give the Ravens a deserved 2-0 lead at the break.

The second half opened with the home side in the ascendancy and they should have reduced the lead following a 52nd minute corner. The ball bobbed about in what seemed like an eternity just waiting to be prodded home but the visitors somehow escaped and from the clearance the ball was picked up by Jerome Murdock who waltzed past four Hayes defenders before sublimely planting the ball into the far corner.

Coalville got a fourth after 78 minutes when Andrew Tuck, who had been exceptional all night, game away a needless penalty which Cameron Stuart converted.

Hayes were rewarded late on when Ben Haseley outstripped the visitors' defence to net a fine goal.

MALVERN TOWN 1 HEATH HAYES 1

THE season ended in disappointment for Heath Hayes as they drew at relegated Malvern.

Again Manager Simon Davies was forced into fielding a very young side who failed to come to terms with the blustery conditions. Despite having all the early play Hayes found themselves a goal down after 20 minutes when Dorrian Colling ran through to score.

Hayes huffed and puffed but never really threatened. Sean Eatley replaced Dave Fisher at half time and set up several good chances.

Resolute defending and a fair share of good fortune kept the home goal intact until Hayes did get the equaliser on the hour when young fullback Luke Jones picked up a loose ball and drilled it into the corner of the net from 20 yards.

Heath Hayes can look back on a very satisfactory debut season in the Midland Alliance finishing in 11th position.
